Chief of Police Steward issued a sensational statement to-day, declaring that he was investigating the accident solely for the purpose of punishing "joy riders."

He said the driver of the car evidently was a "joy rider" and added:

"A few more accidents of this kind would be a good thing. The elimination from public life of law-breakers known as 'joy riders' would be a positive benefit. Of course it would be to the benefit of innocent parties who suffer, but taxicab drivers are irresponsible and form a class that is exceedingly dangerous to traffic. The driver last night actually had to throw his way through other automobiles to get into the river."

It is not known definitely how many of the six persons met death to the accident.

It is not yet definitely known whether four or six persons met death in the accident.

HON. EDGAR DEWDNEY
HOME FROM ENGLAND

Says British Columbia Stands
High in Old Land—Ample Capital Available.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney, accompanied by his bride, has returned from England and is registered at the Driad hotel. Mr. Dewdney is in excellent health and glad to get back to Victoria, where he will shortly take up permanent residence.
To a Times reporter this morning Mr. Dewdney said that England was confronted with the greatest political crisis in the history of the country. The excitement over the fate of the budget was something tremendous. Mr. Dewdney was in Montreal when he heard of the result of the Borden-Hughes election, and he considers that it is highly significant of what will occur when the general elections take place that in such a strong radical constituency the Unionist candidate should have been elected.
Mr. Dewdney found great interest being taken in British Columbia in England. He was called upon by a large number of people who made enquiries about the country, and expressed themselves as determined to come out here and invest their money in such a promising field. He is of the opinion that ample capital will be forthcoming for all legitimate enterprises.

—The council of the Board of Trade will hold a meeting to-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock.

—Mrs. Roberts, of Stanley avenue, is seriously ill at the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

—Steamer Princess Charlotte will go to drydock to-morrow to paint, returning at once to the ferry run. The Charnier will take her place for one day only.

—In the case of Williams vs. Michigan-Pacific Lumber Co., application was made to Mr. Justice Irving this morning to appoint an arbitrator. Judge Lampman was appointed for that purpose.

—Steamer Princess May leaves tonight for Skagway and way ports, carrying passengers at the cut rates. The work of repairing her has been completed at the yards of the B. C. Marine Railway Company.

—C. H. Wilson, general manager of the Edison Phonograph Co., Orange, N. J., and his wife, passed through Victoria last evening on their way to Seattle and California. They were accompanied from Vancouver by Herbert Kent, of M. W. Waitt & Co., Ltd., who went over to meet them.

—The opening session of the tenth annual convention of the Western British Columbia Sunday School Association will be held to-morrow evening in the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, when addresses of welcome will be given by Mayor Hall and the city pastors to the visiting delegates. E. O. Excell and Marion Lawrence, two of those who will take part during the convention, arrived in Victoria this afternoon, and are being entertained at the Empress hotel.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL ANNUAL MEETING

REPORTS RECEIVED AND OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Resolution Carried Against Auto Speeding on Roads.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Local Council of Women commenced this morning in the City Hall with Mrs. C. E. Cooper, the president, presiding. Of the one hundred and fifty-six delegates to the meeting nearly all were present.

The meeting heard the reports of the King's Daughters, Metochin; the First Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society, the Mothers' Club, the W.C.T.U., the W.C.T.U. Refuge Home, the Chinese Home, the Alexandria Club, the Centennial Methodist Ladies' Aid and the Victoria Literary Society. All the reports were eminently satisfactory and showed a steady growth of membership and conditions. The reports were received with general applause and unanimously adopted.

The financial statement showed a balance from last year of $104.48; receipts this year, $188.25; total, $222.73. The expenditure for this year was $98.49, leaving a credit balance of $124.23.

The King's Daughters, of Metochin, offered the following resolution, moved by Mrs. Fisher, and seconded by Mrs. Field:

"Whereas, the excessive speeding and inconsiderate handling of motors on country roads make such roads unsafe for women driving;

"Resolved, that the proper authorities be appealed to for strict enforcement of existing laws and for better regulations concerning rate of speed."

The motion was spoken to by Mrs. Day, Mrs. William Grant, Mrs. Spofford and Mrs. Hay. All the speakers were of one accord on the matter, holding that automobile regulations were not properly carried out and that the provincial police should take the necessary steps to stop speeding. The resolution was carried and the legislative committee was appointed to place the same before the provincial police with a view to having the regulations enforced. The meeting then adjourned until this afternoon.

Mrs. Cooper was re-elected president by acclamation, and Mrs. Jenkins was appointed recording secretary, and Mrs. Spofford, corresponding secretary. These ladies filled the offices also last year. To fill the five vice-presidencies there were twenty nominations. The ballot taken resulted in the following being elected: Mrs. Willcroft, Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. F. Andrews.

DR. MORRISON DIED AT JUBILEE HOSPITAL

Well Known Figure in Victoria
Passed Away Yesterday.

The death occurred yesterday morning at the Royal Jubilee hospital of Dr. Richard Morrison, at the age of 57 years. Deceased was born in Ireland and had been a resident of this city for the past 28 years. At one time he was health officer here, which position he held for some time. The late Dr. Morrison was one of those who left for the north during the Klondike gold rush, where he spent considerable time.

He has been a familiar figure on the streets of this city. He owned a good deal of property in and about Victoria, and at the time of his death still owned a considerable amount of what he once had.

The funeral has been arranged to take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the B. C. Funeral Home, Company's parlors, Government street. Interment will take place in Ross Bay cemetery.

At the Victoria theatre this evening the management will commence another amateur contest which will take up the entire week with a Saturday afternoon matinee. The entries that have been received so far indicates that the entertainment will be even better than that provided last week. The list for entries is still open but will be closed this evening at 5 o'clock. In addition to the amateurs a complete list of animated pictures will also be shown, among them being Sonambulist Hero, The Janitor's Bottle, The Landlady's Portrait. He Couldn't Dance, and several others. The concert will also include a couple of illustrated songs by Mrs. Roy Troup, and on the whole the entertainment should be well up to the high standard provided at the Victoria theatre.

—Are you going to the ball on the King's Birthday?

SPECIAL TRAIN TO SAANICHTON

IMPORTANT MEETING TO BE HELD TO-NIGHT

John Oliver and Thomas Brydon Will Address Electors.

The political pot is commencing to boil locally, and the Liberals are arranging for meetings in all the ridings around the city. From now to election day there will be meetings practically every night and the electors will be made fully conversant with the true inwardness of the McBride government's alleged railway policy.

In Saanich Thomas A. Brydon is having a meeting this evening, which will be addressed by the leader of the party. The meeting will be held at Saanichton and in order to accommodate the electors in Oak Bay, South Saanich, Royal Oak, and the other communities between here and there a special train has been chartered over the Victoria & Sidney railway. This will leave the city at 7 p. m., and will stop at every station, returning at the close of the meeting.

Mr. Oliver went over to Vancouver last night and returns on this afternoon's boat. He will be the principal speaker at this evening's meeting.

In Esquimalt, John Jardine is making a thorough canvass of Esquimalt constituency and every indication is that he will poll a bigger majority than last time. He has a series of meetings arranged for and will speak in every part of the riding.

Island Candidates.
In Cowichan John N. Evans, who represented that constituency for several years, is almost certain to redeem the seat, which W. H. Hayward won at the last election. Mr. Evans is extremely popular in the riding and is a strong candidate.

Percy Purvis, who is the Liberal candidate for the Islands against A. E. McPhillips, is arranging for a series of meetings upon which he will enter at once. His chances of winning the seat are very bright.

STRUCK BY ROCK WHEN EXCAVATING

J. A. Williams, Rock Contractor,
Met With Serious Accident.

A serious accident occurred this morning to J. A. Williams, a rock contractor, living on Michigan street. He had recently taken a contract to finish excavating the rock for the basement of the new building to be erected for the Colbert Plumbing & Heating Co. This morning his gang was at work and a shot had been put into a hole bored by the previous contractor. The "fire" signal was given and the men slipped around the corner of the adjoining wall. Williams stood in the doorway of the shed which covers the blacksmith's anvil, and when the men returned after the explosion they found him lying on the ground beneath the anvil.
Dr. O. M. Jones was at once called, and it was found that he had been struck on the forehead by a rock, and that his arm was broken. The ambulance was called and the patient taken to the St. Joseph's hospital, where the wounds were dressed, and up to the time of going to press he was doing well.

According to those who were present the shot was properly weighted and the affair was purely accidental.

WATER FRONTAGE TAX LEADS TO LAWSUIT

Water Commissioner May Be Sued for 91 Cents
Overcharge.

It is understood that Water Commissioner Raymur is, or is about to be, defendant in a lawsuit in his official capacity.
The suit, it is said, is for the sum of ninety-one cents, alleged to be overcharged on a piece of Hillside avenue property in regard to water main frontage tax.
E. M. Johnson is mentioned as plaintiff in the case.

HONDURAS HAS LOST HER NAVY

Scuttled by Smugglers and Sinks While Being Towed to Shore.

New Orleans, Nov. 8.—The gunboat La Tumbia, comprising the entire Honduran navy, was sunk near Port Cortez after being boarded by smugglers, according to passengers arriving on the steamer Paramina from British Honduras.

The story of the destruction of the Honduran navy, as told here, is as follows:

Captain Zilela, commanding the La Tumbia, encountered a stranger coasting steamship, and upon being convinced that it was operated by smugglers, demanded its surrender. He captured it and made the crew prisoners. The capture was accomplished so easily that a celebration was held on the boat. There were good things to eat and no lack of wine.

After dinner the wine smugglers captured their captors one and all, the captain included, and after binding them set them adrift in small boats. Then the smugglers boarded the man-of-war and scuttled her. The La Tumbia later was met by the freight steamer Harold which towed her toward shore, but she sank before shallow water could be reached.

The crew of the gunboat nearly all succeeded in reaching shore, it is said, in the small boats.

GERMAN'S CHARGE AGAINST BRITAIN

Alleged to Have Planned to Prevent Germany Aiding Russia.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—The serious charge that Great Britain was involved in machinations against Germany at the time of the Dogger Bank affair on October 22, 1904, is brought by former Chancellor of Legation Von Rath, who served at Berlin and Constantinople, in the Tageblatt.

The Dogger Bank incident referred to was the firing on the Mamerock traveling fleet off Hull by the Russian Baltic squadron under the delusion, as alleged, that the fishing smacks were Japanese torpedo boats.

Von Rath accuses Great Britain of having stationed warships off Vigo and six submarines in the vicinity of Heligoland preparatory to sinking the German warships in the event of Germany's taking sides with Russia in the war then progressing. The commanders of the British vessels, according to the writer, had direct orders from Downing street to wait for the Germans and blow them into the air in the event of suspicious movements.

Other papers comment on the article from various standpoints. The Vossische Zeitung ridicules the charges against Great Britain, but the National Zeitung, although placing the responsibility for the charges on Herr Von Rath, says: "We do not doubt for a moment that England took these measures."

NICARAGUAN TROOPS REPORTED ROUTED

One Hundred Killed and Wounded in Fight With Revolutionists.

Blue Fields, Nicaragua, Nov. 8.—News has been received here by General Estrada that in an engagement near Gutuso, Chontales province, on Thursday and Friday, General Fornio Diaz, of the revolutionary forces, won a decisive victory against six hundred government troops. The reports state that a hundred of the government troops were killed or wounded, and that the loss of the insurgents was slight. General Diaz had sharpshooters in the trees, who picked off a large number of the government troops as they advanced. The insurgents still hold the San Juan river district.

Reports from Managua Friday stated that the government troops had defeated the revolutionists in the engagements in Chontales province on Thursday and Friday, with heavy losses to the Estrada followers. The same dispatch stated that General Diaz, who was defending Paso Las Lajas, with four hundred men, was routed.

If a coat of paint were applied to the skin of a human being, death would ensue in five hours.

COULD NOT RESIST TEMPTATION TO STEAL

Daughter of Prominent Lawyer of Hawaii Ends Her Life.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 8.—Discouraging by unavailing efforts to resist an overwhelming temptation to steal, Miss Mabel Wise, the 21 year old daughter of a prominent lawyer of Hawaii, is dead from the effects of bicloride tablets which she swallowed with suicidal intent. The police state that she was a kleptomaniac and that they have positive evidence that she stole from her friends whom she visited. The police say that she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Pae at Berkeley, who missed a number of articles and reported the matter to the police. After investigating, they accused Miss Wise of the theft. She broke down and confessed and heart broken admitted that she could not resist the desire to steal. She explained that she did not need the money or the other articles which she stole from friends scattered all over the United States.

After swallowing bicloride she remained in an unconscious condition in a hospital until she died.

MUST STAND TRIAL FOR MURDER OF WIFE

Plea That Law Was Repealed
Dismissed by Judge at Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Judge Mitchell Gilliam on Saturday overruled the demurrer of Thomas R. Horner, made in behalf of Arthur W. George, charged with the murder of his divorced wife, who asked that the information be dismissed on the ground that when the legislature repealed the old criminal law in March last the new law prescribing the penalty for murder did not take effect for ninety days. Mrs. George was shot and killed by her husband in May, 1909, at a time when the old law had not gone into effect. It is the contention of Mr. Horner that there was an open season for murder between March and June, 1909.

In delivering his opinion and overruling the demurrer, Judge Gilliam said:

"It was evidently the intention of the legislature to continue the old law in effect until the new law went into effect, even if not expressly so stated. I think there is unquestionably saving clause enough to hold the old law in effect. Even under the common law the defendant might be held. It was surely not the intent of the legislature to let the crime of murder go unpun-ished. This court cannot release a man charged with murder on the plea that there was no law for such an offence. The court also denied the motion for a change of venue. Judge Gilliam stated that because an attorney had a quarrel with his client he did not believe that sufficient grounds for a change of venue.

"I think we can find twelve unprejudiced and fair-minded jurors in this county," said the court.

Arthur W. George will be placed on trial on December 6th for the murder of his wife. He has refused to accept a sentence for second degree murder, and announced that he would sooner hang than spend his life in the penitentiary.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE ON CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP

Delivers Address Before the Canadian Club at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—Lord Northcliffe, addressing the Canadian Club on Saturday, sounded a note of warning as to the class of Canadian citizenship which is being developed in Western Canada. He said that the United States was trying to assimilate each year one million people of inferior races from Southern Europe, with the result that lower ideals of citizenship prevail. He was sorry to see signs of similar conditions in Western Canada at the present stage of development, when the character of the nation was being formed.

It was highly important, Lord Northcliffe said, that Canadians should endeavor to create British ideals of citizenship and should strive against American ideals which had been marred by the immigration of millions of people of inferior races.

Speaking of the proposed navy, he advised Canada to go slow at first, but expressed the opinion that the sailors of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts would provide raw material for a navy as good as could be found anywhere in the world.

Lord Northcliffe reiterated his belief in the German menace, declaring that Germany was building a navy with the express purpose of fighting Britain.

FALLING TO PIECES

The announcement of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper that he intends to vote for the Liberal candidates in Vancouver city to mark his dissatisfaction with the government railway policy has not taken his closest political friends by surprise.

As a statesman who has "done the state some service in the past," no public man has better opportunities for estimating the advantages and disadvantages of the government policy than Sir Hibbert. From the first it was felt that before expressing an opinion he would bestow careful thought upon the astounding proposition to guarantee the bonds and the interest on those bonds on behalf of the Canadian Northern Railway Company, a proposition which will place the province under a pecuniary obligation of $46,000,000 upon the flimsiest security, much of which has been already pledged to other provinces east of the Rockies.

The result of Sir Hibbert's careful consideration will be found in the announcement that he will vote against the government. The withdrawal of this prominent Conservative from the ranks of the government supporters cannot fail to have a powerful effect upon the constituencies throughout the country. Sir Hibbert and his father before him have always been consistent Conservatives. For years Sir Charles Tupper the elder directed the policy of that party, and as one of the Fathers of Confederation has possessed the confidence and affectionate regard of the Conservatives. For a man of Sir Hibbert's experience, knowledge and weight to break away from lifelong affiliations and tell the country that he intends to vote for the opposition must have caused him a wrench that only those who have been in a similar position can understand and appreciate. We sympathize with Sir Hibbert's feelings, while we applaud an act of self-abnegation and unselfishness that few men would have had the courage to face.

As a matter of course Sir Hibbert will be open to animadversion and misrepresentation from the men who are scheming to place the country in the hands of a money power from which there will be no escape during the life-time of the present or the next generation. The obligation we are asked to assume is so stupendous that it jars the moral sense of the country and sweeps through men's minds like a cyclone.

Some supporters of the government point to the subsidy that Sir John Macdonald's government gave the C. P. R. for building its through line; but they conveniently forget that the country through which the line was to be built was a pathless and unknown land of uncertain resources. The same may be said of the G.T.F. and the country through which it passes. But the comparison is not apposite, for no other reason than that the Dominion had a revenue of $60,000,000 when the C. P. R. was subsidized and that when the G.T.F. came in for its share the revenue had risen to $85,000,000. The credit of the Dominion is unassailable, and there is no difficulty in raising money on the Ottawa government's endorsement. But how stands it with British Columbia? The revenue under the judicious management of the late Finance Minister has advanced to about $5,000,000, and it is proposed to pledge that revenue to the extent of $46,000,000 to enable Mackenzie & Mann to build a line of railway through a part of the province where there is already one line and where another line is being built without government aid. Is the defection of Sir Hibbert Tupper to be wondered at in the face of this monstrous proposition? Is it strange that Mr. Tatlow, Mr. Fulton, and Mr. James Garden, a long and ardent supporter of the government, before it sold out to Mackenzie & Mann, recoil from the so-called "contract" with feelings of repugnance which they make no effort to conceal? To the ranks of these men Sir Hibbert Tupper is welcomed—not as a Liberal but as a Conservative who is shocked by the recklessness of the so-called Conservative party of British Columbia. And there are many other leaders who are preparing to break away from the government ranks and who will swell the majority of the opposition on the day of election.

SILENCE OF MR. TATLOW.

Ex-Finance Minister Tatlow says he is ready at any time to tell the Conservative Association of Vancouver why he resigned his portfolio. But Mr. Tatlow owes a duty to a bigger constituency than the Conservative Association of Vancouver. As Finance Minister he represented the whole province of British Columbia. It is to all the people of British Columbia he owes an explanation. For the sake not only of the present, but in the interests it may be of a future generation, he should make public the grave reasons of state which impelled him to sever his connection with a government whose general policy he was incomplete accord and for whose membership he had the greatest personal regard. If Mr. Tatlow believes the railway policy of the government is likely to prove ruinous to the credit of the province and an intolerable burden upon the shoulders of the people of the province, as the man who ought to be the best informed upon the subject he should come out and say so in plain terms. His refusal to become a consenting party to the railway policy of the Premier by resigning his portfolio in Mr. McBride's government only condemns that railway deal inferentially. The opinion of the ex-Finance Minister upon such a subject would carry a great deal of weight. Mr. Tatlow may take the position that his resignation from office does not carry with it the obligation to expose and oppose his late colleagues. That would seem like an act of ingratitude. But mere personal considerations should not weigh a feather in the scale when the matter is a choice between performing what he knows to be his duty to the province at large and shielding by silence the government which he believes is going to take a false step. Mr. Tatlow should make a public statement. The Conservative Association of Vancouver is only interested in his maintaining silence.

THE PRESS AND POLITICS.

Some subscribers to the Times complain, and with a modicum of reason we admit, that too much space is being given these days to the discussion of political questions. We sometimes have a feeling akin to that of the complainants. Yet there appears to be no avenue of escape from the deluge of discussion. And, after all, what subject should have a deeper interest for a nation, or a section of a nation, which enjoys the unspeakable privilege and the tremendous responsibility of self-government than the manner in which its affairs shall be administered and the character of men who shall carry out that administration for the ensuing statutory term?

The Times is in daily receipt of newspapers from all parts of the world. In every one of these exchanges the chief subject of discussion is politics. The British newspapers are filled with long reports of the speeches of leading public men. The editors are just as deeply engrossed in the absorbing topic as the statesmen of the nation. The same is true of the great newspapers of the United States. In New York the record of Tammany for the past quarter of a century has been under review for weeks. The press has been engaged in a desperate attempt to cleanse the city of the influence which has made for its degradation. Tammany has obscured every other issue, federal and state, and for the first time since the Hall became a paramount influence for evil in the greatest of American cities its hold has been weakened and the way cleared for cleaner and better municipal government. Under the circumstances surely no one will presume to say that the space which has been given over by the great dailies of New York to the discussion of politics has been wasted.

No, dear reader, in these latter days when murderous conflicts between great nations are practically at an end, when all the talk of statesmen is confined to defensive measures instead of being centred upon schemes of conquest, the subject of internal government is the most momentous one of all. There are forces within the state which are working for the uplifting of the people—for advancement and improvement. In one form or other they are the issues in every election. It is therefore a sacred duty for intelligent citizens to carefully study the questions presented to them by public men and to take a deep interest in these questions, so that when the day of election draws they may be prepared to make an intelligent choice between the candidates who present themselves, because in choosing representatives they make or break governments.

We have no hesitation in saying that at the present time there is a crisis in the affairs of British Columbia. The McBride government is making an appeal for a renewal of its lease of power. The records of the appealing administration prove that not once in the three times it has come before the public has it been animated by sincerity of purpose or depth of principle. It has raised the better terms issue and the Oriental issue, both of which have been demonstrated to be mere demagogic appeals at stepping-stones to office. Now it offers a railway policy as a bribe to certain constituencies. It hopes to purchase a further term in office on the strength of that policy. It does not care what the effect may be upon the future of the province so long as it is permitted to cling to power. Fortunately for British Columbia, however, there were men in the McBride government who valued their reputation and the financial stability of the province more highly than office and its emoluments.

Are these facts not of paramount interest to every newspaper reader in British Columbia? We cannot think of anything more worthy of the attention of the press.

H. B. Thomson says the terminus of the Canadian Northern Railway on Barkley Sound will be a shipping point of tremendous importance within a very few years. The Colonist has seen visions of mills, elevators, stations, sidings, ships, and a great host of other things, in Victoria after it becomes the ocean terminus of the Canadian Northern Railway. Mr. Mann told the newspaper men of Vancouver when in that city that it was the intention of the company to make their port the Pacific shipping point of the system. He also told a reporter of the Toronto News that "Barkley Sound would not, in the near future at least, be utilized as a great Pacific shipping port." The Vancouver News-Advertiser says the construction of the Canadian Northern Railway will open up a new country extending along two hundred miles. The Victoria Colonist says the new region to be opened up will amount to six hundred miles. What grain of truth can the public be expected to extract from such a mass of contradictions except the very transparent truth that the thing is to stay in after you are in even at the risk of your soul's salvation.

Wherever Mr. Bowser speaks he does the side that he espouses harm. His party lost votes in all the constituencies that he addressed, while campaigning in the East last year, and now we have the evidence of Sir Hibbert Tupper, who, in an interview, tells the public that Mr. Bowser's recent speech at Revelstoke in favor of the government policy has turned him (Sir Hibbert) against it. Apart entirely from Mr. Bowser's clumsy and ridiculous explanation, his attack on Capt. Tatlow was in exceedingly bad taste—discourteous, rude and insulting.

The burning question of the day outside of British Columbia, where we have political troubles of our own just now, is what will the lords do with the budget? The question will be answered very soon. Their lordships are, generally speaking, not given to the delivery of long speeches. Besides, most of them have already made up their minds. If they are going to issue a challenge to the Commons, it will probably be published this week. Should the peers be in a mood for a fight, they will have the liveliest time on their hands within the memory of the most venerable of them. It will not be a full dress affair.

What Other People Think

THE NEW THEATRE.

To the Editor:—The movement in the direction of a new theatre may be said to have failed. People refuse to subscribe for an object that has written upon its face failure. An investment of $150,000 that can only show an earning power of $5,000 per annum, out of which will have to be met insurance, taxes, repairs, etc., is surely not going to attract the money of wise and provident men, when there are so many good opportunities on all sides awaiting capital. Admitting that Victoria may need a new theatre, she does not want it on such terms as the Northwest Theatrical Association proposes.

SOCK AND BUSKIN.

A PREMIER'S WORDS.

To the Editor: Premier McBride came to the provincial school trustee convention at New Westminster two years ago and told us he would be pleased to carry out all our resolutions—if he could. This resolution, seconded by Mayor Plante of Nanaimo, and carried by a large majority. "That the questions at the entrance examinations be within the scope of the text book and upon the subject under examination." has not been carried out.

Premier McBride has thus failed to secure fair play for the pupils of the public schools from his education department, notwithstanding the convention's resolution and his promise. Premier McBride sent a letter to the convention at Revelstoke last November stating that his deputy minister of education would take his place on the programme.

The deputy-premier's substitute, came and made a false explanation concerning the distribution of the Governor-General's bronze medals. He said they were given to places that sent up the most pupils at the entrance examinations. This plausible false explanation prevented the Keefer's delegate from introducing his resolution about the medals. This deputy had previously written a different false explanation on the same subject to the chairman of the Spallumcheen school board. In that letter he stated those medals were given to places where a High school had been established.

Surely the people have not forgotten the false statement about the London Times, made by ex-Premier Turner at Victoria on the eve of an election. I had heard Col. Gregory make a directly contrary statement a few nights previous in the same opera house. Like the Colonist, in my innocence I did not think it possible that a premier could deceive the people on the eve of an election, and I did not dare to challenge the statement, though I was present. A few days after the election I found Col. Gregory, the Liberal, had told the truth; and that the then Premier Turner, the Conservative, had told the other thing.

THE "THIRD DEGREE."

To the Editor: Referring to a letter in the Times of 2nd inst., upon "Police and the Third Degree," no amount of condemnation could be too great for such illegal torture, even in America. But the bare idea there is a "tendency" of such a monster leaving its shining trail anywhere in the British Empire must not be tolerated.

Your correspondent might have dwelt upon the fact that the "caution" to the criminal or supposed criminal; and the tangible arrest, or attachment by touch (which is always indispensable), should be coincident and instantaneous. Therefore the "caution" in the first instance is the duty of the policeman and not the magistrate, before whom the criminal is on his preliminary trial.

That being the case our expensive police force would first carefully instruct the prisoners—that they "were not bound to say anything," etc.; but the next moment commence to bully them out of all they knew and perhaps more.

Crushed to Death While Fighting Blaze in Factory—Several Others Injured.

(Special to the Times.)

Montreal, Nov. 8.—As the result of a fire that broke out at 9.30 this morning in the Roland-Freres furniture factory, two firemen are dead. Firemen Milloy and Holbrook were both dug out from beneath the debris of the fourth floor, which gave way, crushing the men to death.

Captain Burnett and firemen Nolan, Rioux, Fortier, Hosmer and Hamelin were injured, none of them fatally. The property loss is small, probably $30,000.

Police Believe Man Committed Suicide, But U. S. Consul is Making Inquiries.

(Special to the Times.)

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—Despondent because he had lost his employment at the United States legation in Peking, Hugo Webber, aged forty, was found strangled at a rooming house on Cordova street this morning.

Webber returned from China on the Empress of India about a month ago. His wife met him here and with their only child the family located at Salmon Arm, near Kamloops, where Webber started a general store. About two weeks ago Webber returned to this city and since then he has been brooding because of his failure to get his job at Peking back. Webber was considered a valuable man by the legation as he was able to speak several languages, including both Japanese and Chinese.

Although suicide is given out by the police as causing his death the United States consul here is making inquiries as to whether Webber had any enemies among local Chinese. The way in which a silk scarf was tied around his neck suggests murder to the officials.

BUDGET INTRODUCED IN HOUSE OF LORDS

(Times Leased Wire.)

London, Nov. 8.—Before the fullest representation of England's nobility that the House of Lords has seen in generations, the Earl of Crewe formally laid Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George's budget bill before the House this afternoon.

AUGUSTUS HEINZE IS WELCOMED TO BUTTE

Predicts Indictments Against Him in New York Will Be Quashed.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Butte, Mont., Nov. 8.—On his return to Butte last night, after two years absence, Augustus Heinze was given an ovation, the equal of which has seldom been tendered a private citizen in this city. From the balcony of the Butte hotel he spoke to a crowd of 4,000 people, who frequently interrupted him with cheers.

At the depot a crowd of 1,500 persons had gathered with a band. The carriage in which he rode up town was drawn by a score or more stalwart admirers. The main thoroughfares of the city were brilliantly illuminated with the long strings and clusters of incandescent lights used on holidays and two huge signs blazoned forth a welcome.

In the absence of Mayor Nevin, County Attorney T. J. Walker welcomed him on behalf of the mayor. Heinze, in responding to the address, referred to the indictments against him in New York, predicting that they would be quashed.

Funeral Furnishing Company, Government street, where services were conducted by the Rev. J. Grundy, who also officiated at the grave. Deceased was 35 years of age and a native of England. For 15 years he served in the British army, serving in the Boer and other African campaigns. Latterly he had been prospecting near the Jordan river. He succumbed to heart disease.

Thomas, Turnbull, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from an Indian, appeared in the police court on Saturday after having been in jail on remand over Friday and pleaded not guilty. He was discharged. The Indian claimed accused had sold him a cabin for eight dollars. The defence was that the cabin had been rented to the Indian and the contents sold to him.

—The regular weekly meeting of the Young Peoples' Society of the First Presbyterian church will be held this evening in the lecture room of the church. An interesting address will be given by J. G. Brown on "The Northwest Rebellion." All friends of the club are invited to be present.

—The real estate market is showing signs of activity. A Vancouver syndicate is reported to have acquired from R. P. Clarke an acre of land on Douglas street for about $5,000, the deal being negotiated through Gillespie & Hart. The lot at the corner of Langley and Wharf streets is said to have been purchased by A. E. Todd at a cost of about $35,000.

—A banquet will be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock by the men's club of the Metropolitan Methodist church in the schoolroom. After the meal a discussion will take place on civic politics and also on the policies of the club. Plover's orchestra has been engaged to give a number of musical selections during the evening. All members of the church are cordially invited to attend and take part in the discussion.

—The Vancouver Island Development League has now been in existence for six months and the most gratifying results have attended the efforts expended to advertise the resources and attractions of Victoria and the Island. The amount of interest being taken in Vancouver Island is growing in volume every week. A system of advertising has been inaugurated and inquiries as a result of this are pouring in at the rate of thirty to forty letters per day.

—As will be seen in the advertising columns, Stewart Williams & Co. will hold some important sales this week. To-morrow they are selling a quantity of furniture at 532 Yates street. On Wednesday they will dispose of a quantity of new mission furniture, solid brass bedsteads, Axminster and Brussels carpets, a No. 8 Albin range, mahogany drawing room furniture, etc. This is all an exceptionally good lot, and should find ready buyers. On Thursday, in addition to the household furniture at 1324 Fairfield road, about 150 pure bred chickens will be sold, including gold and silver speckled Hamburgs, crested Polish Anconas, partridge Wyandottes and Andalusians. Mr. Smith won over 40 prizes with these birds this year here and at the Vancouver shows. Many of the birds are imported stock. A cow and two horses will also be disposed of. On November 22nd they will offer 60 acres of land in the Esquimalt district, having received instructions to do so from the commissioner of lands. Further particulars can be obtained from the auctioneers.

CAMPAIGNERS ARE TO BANQUET TO-MORROW

All Arrangements Made for Patriotic Function at the Driard Hotel.

Judging from the amount of interest which is being taken in the affair, the annual banquet under the auspices of the British Campaigners' Association in celebration of the Indian mutiny, to be held in the Driard hotel to-morrow evening, will prove one of the most interesting functions in the history of the city. Capt. Clive Phillips-Wolley will deliver the address of the evening, and the Bishop of Columbia and Mayor Hall will also speak. The attendance promises to exceed that of last year, when 137 guests sat at the banquet board.

The toasts on the list include "The King," "The Army, Navy and Volunteer Forces," "B. B. Guests," and the guests of honor will include the following veterans who took part in that historic struggle which saved the British Empire: Major W. Wilson, 42nd Highlanders (Black Watch); Brinkley Robinson, H.M. 12th Foot; G. Millett, 5th Northumberland Fusiliers; R. Foster, 20th Hussars; F. C. Ferris, Royal Horse Artillery; Rev. J. S. Bailey, a Crimean veteran, and others.

The secretary of the association, Lieutenant P. T. Stern, would be glad to know of the whereabouts of other veterans of the mutiny. The musical programme is expected to prove of exceptional merit. The orchestra of the Fifth Regiment will render selections and songs will be given by Messrs. Phillips, Evans, Falcay, Griffiths and Beaven. A. Berwick will be accompanist. The dinner will commence at 8.30 and not 8 p.m., as stated on the tickets which have been sold.

—St. George's masquerade, Tuesday, November 9th.

—The opening games of the chess tournament being held in the Y. M. C. A., under the supervision of Thomas Piper, took place on Saturday evening. A number of games were played, among those taking part were E. Steele, G. Williams, W. B. Fisher, W. Scowcroft and W. Mitchell. Other games will be played on the coming Saturday evenings during the winter season.

—At the men's meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A., Rev. H. S. Magee, field secretary of the Methodist church department of moral reform in Canada, gave an address on local option. The attendance was the best yet seen at the meetings held so far this season, and present listened to for this season. Those present listened to evening Rev. Mr. Magee will give another address on "The Reverend Question" in the association rooms at 8 o'clock. All persons interested in this subject are invited to attend.

—In connection with the oratory contest to be given on December 1st, in the Y. M. C. A., on the subject of "The Future of Victoria," four persons have signified their intention of taking part. The entries have been received from J. L. Martin, E. L. Harrison, G. Brown and S. Woodward. Rules governing the contest are that no speech shall exceed 20 minutes and no man professionally engaged as a speaker can compete. The prize cannot be won two years in succession and 50 per cent will be allowed for matter and 50 per cent for the style in which the oration is given.

At Oak Bay on Saturday, Victoria West demonstrated that it will take a strong team to take away the 1909 championship of the soccer league from them and the chances that the Western athletic aggregation will have another championship cup in their shed at the end of the season is more than probable. The play of the Foresters was disappointing, and the defeat was due to better play by the opposing team. The Foresters have changed their team so often that on Saturday they met the Wests, that have played together four years and know every step all the men take, the A.O.F. put out a team in which five men were new to the others' play. They were unfortunate that the goal keeper did not arrive and had to try out a new one in the most important match of the season, and Clegg failed to show up to take his place on the half-back line, where the team that took the field was exceptionally weak. Again, the luck was with the Wests, as they secured choice of goals and kicked the first half with the wind, which died down during the last half and was no help for the Foresters. Victoria West besides kicking most goals was the better of the two teams, and all the way, but for fifteen minutes at the end of the first half when the Foresters seemed to be more than holding their own, the winners had eighty per cent. the best of play. The game was marred by considerable rough work, mostly done by the winners, and Stewart, of the A.O.F., was laid out during the second half and had to be carried off the field. He was sandwiched by Sedger and Sheritt, who then fell on top of him. Stewart was afterwards able to return to the field, but his play had the sting taken from it. Four of the other players received minor injuries.

The A.O.F. team went away at the beginning of the game without confidence. The players seemed to be waiting to see what the Wests could do, and they saw at once as the winners rushed the ball right on the goal and secured a corner from which McKittrick accurately picked the ball with toe and sent it into the net. Having discovered what the Wests could do, the A.O.F. team buckled to and within five minutes Miller, a new man, who played a sterling game throughout, equalized the score, and it was the one and only one the Foresters could secure. The back line of the winning team was too strong for the forwards of the Foresters. Whyte, Prevost and Beane being a battery strong as a stone wall. The West's half-back line, with Bailey, Cowper and Kinloch, had the Foresters safe all the time, and the forwards were superior to the Foresters' backs. Wright, a second division Victoria West player, is well worth his place on the senior team, and Cowper, half-back, played the best game he has played for a year. Bailey more than held his own against Pearson.

The Foresters' forwards fell down, Pearson was the only man playing the game among them, and without support could do nothing. Newlands on the back line, tried and tried again to stem the tide, but had to play back and half-back positions both. Dakers played a fair game, but made mistakes that were costly, and of the others Stewart and Petch tried hard.

The goals were scored by: McKittrick 2, Sheritt 2, and Wright 1. Miller scoring for the A.O.F. Locksley, as referee, performed his duties well, but when Stewart was knocked out he bounced the ball instead of giving the Foresters a free kick. The teams were: Victoria West—Beane, Whyte, Prevost, Cowper, Bailey, Kinloch, McKittrick, Okell, Sedger, Wright, Sheritt, A.O.F.—McDonald, Dakers, Newlands, Wilson, Petch, Stewart, J. Young, W. Young, Bridgen, Pearson and Miller.

Garrison and Bays Draw. At the Work Point grounds the Garrison and James Bay teams played a hard and fast game that ended in a draw, with three goals each. The game was marred by an accident to Lawson, of the Bays' back division, who was put out of the game with a badly wrenched shoulder, and it is unlikely he will play again this season. The Bays were the first to score, Fairley getting a goal, but it was not long before Buxton scored for the Garrison, and the teams crossed over at half time with the score even. The second half opened with the Garrison pressing, but were unable to score. Ill Todd put one through; Elton then took a penalty kick from Hughes and brought the score equal. A goal was added before the close, and with Lawson off it looked as if the Garrison would win the game, but the Bays' defence held the soldiers down successfully till time was called, and the game ended three goals each.

ST. YVES WINS THE MARATHON AT SEATTLE

Leads by Five Hundred Yards at Close of Twenty Mile Race.

(Times Leased Wire.) Spokane, Wash., Nov. 8.—Henri St. Yves raced home an easy victor over John Marshe the Canadian, and the rest of the field of four in the Marathon race at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon. St. Yves was fully 500 yards more than a lap and a half, in the lead at the finish. His time for the 20 miles course, six laps to the mile, was 1:54:32.25, only two minutes slower than the race at Seattle three weeks ago, also won by St. Yves. The race was run under the most discouraging weather conditions, a fine drizzle falling steadily throughout. Promoter Tim McGrath is something like $2,000 to the bad on the venture.

ALL MEN READY FOR TO-NIGHT'S BIG RACE

Stanley Undertakes to Beat Three Men at Own Distances.

Rowan, of Nanaimo, has arrived in the city and all the runners are now ready for the race to-night at the horse show building.

Stanley, of San Francisco, will endeavor to beat Baylis, of Victoria, over fifteen miles; Broughton, of Portland, over ten miles, and Rowan, of Nanaimo, over twenty miles. Prior to this event there will be a curtain raiser with a mile race between Leo Gaugel and C. Quay, two of the foremost jockeys who rode last summer at the Willows. The midlets, who are both speedy, will start off at 8:15 p.m., and the big race will commence at 8:30.

A special car service from 7 o'clock has been arranged and will be supplied if needed both to and from the track. The grounds from the car to the ring will be lighted from 7 o'clock onward. All the runners declare they are in good form and can make the various distances in good time. One man undertaking to beat three over their favorite distances is a unique race, Baylis likes five miles better than any distance. Broughton is said to be Portland's best ten-mile runner, and Rowan has accomplished twenty miles so often that he ought to give the Dane a race all the way.

The young men of Ognelles, France, who had gone to Champion for a local festival, were repelled by the young men of that village, after a sanguinary battle on the ground that they stole the affections of their girls whenever they came.

B.C.A.A.U. GETS SEVERE KNOCK

IS TURNED DOWN BY ISLAND SOCCER MEN

Schedule for First Division Drawn at Ladysmith Saturday.

The Vancouver Island Association Football League met at Ladysmith on Saturday night and passed a resolution that the British Columbia Amateur Athletic Union was unsatisfactory and would not have the support of the league. The meeting decided the league would not recognize the union, but would play all its games under the English football rules. In this connection the most important rule is that amateurs can play the game with professionals without hurting their amateur standing. This is a severe bump to the Union, and the first of many, that have threatened its establishment here.

George Okell represented Victoria West and W. H. Mescher Esquimalt. Outside the decision to turn down the B.C.A.A.U. the business comprised the drawing of the schedule, which is considered the best drawn up for years. The second division schedule has been left over till the 20th instant to give the Victoria teams time to enter.

The senior schedule is as follows, the season opening at Ladysmith, December 18th:

December 18th—Ladysmith vs. Victoria West.
December 18th—Esquimalt vs. Nanaimo.
December 25th—Victoria West vs. Esquimalt.
January 1st—Nanaimo vs. Ladysmith.
January 1st—Esquimalt vs. Victoria West.
January 8th—Nanaimo vs. Esquimalt.
January 15th—Ladysmith vs. Nanaimo.
January 22nd—Ladysmith vs. Esquimalt.
January 29th—Victoria West vs. Nanaimo.
February 5th—Nanaimo vs. Victoria West.
February 12th—Esquimalt vs. Ladysmith.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE ELECTS OFFICERS

Bank Clerks to Have Live Team in League This Year.

The annual meeting of the basketball league took place Saturday night at the Y.M.C.A., when A. J. Brace occupied the chair. The meeting decided to stick to the age limit as against the weight limit for the various grades, and named November 17th as the date for the entries in all grades to be in. The officers elected for this season were: President, A. J. Brace, re-elected; vice-president, D. O'Sullivan; re-elected; secretary, R. M. Jones; treasurer, K. P. Hughes; executive, D. S. Tait, R. Peden, W. G. Findlay and C. Cousins.

At the meeting were: D. S. Tait, representing Victoria West; K. P. Hughes, of the J.B.A.A.; W. G. Findlay and Jones, Y.M.C.A.; C. Cousins and Mackenzie, representing the North Ward Athletic Club; J. W. McArthur, representing the Y.M.I.; Rome and Holden, of the newly formed Bankers' team.

Bankers' Meeting. The bank clerks on Saturday formed a basketball league for the season. They will arrange matches with the local league team, and with Duncan and the Vancouver bankers. Officers elected were: Captain, Fred Rome; manager, C. W. Holden; secretary, treasurer, L. R. Lloyd. The colors decided upon were red and white, the same as last year, and the name of the team, "The Victoria Bankers."

VICTORIA TEAM BEAT BAY'S RUGBY FIFTEEN

Score Thirty-four to Five—Winning Side in Good Form.

The Victoria Rugby team again demonstrated on Saturday that it is the senior Rugby organization of the city by easily defeating the J.B.A.A. organization by thirty-four points to five.

The Bays had not the strongest team out, and the Victoria club had not its full strength on the field. The winners showed great improvement in the back division over last year's play, and things don't look good for Vancouver when the cup games come on. Meredith scored a drop kick goal and played a good all round game. McGuigan, Meredith, H. Gillespie and Schofield, three-quarters, played a much improved game and surprised the attendance by the careful passing and systematic play. For the Bays, J. Sweeney scored a try and L. Sweeney converted. Scott proved an efficient referee. The teams were:

Victoria—Full-back, Lowry; three-quarters, McGuigan, Meredith, H. Gillespie, Schofield; half-backs, A. Gillespie, Newcombe (c); forwards, R. Gillespie, S. Gillespie, Arbuckle, Hopgood, Ward, Hinkler, Mason, Keefer. J.B.A.A.—Full back, Johnson; three-quarters, Bendroit, Wilmut, Fair Jones; half-backs, Carrs, Grimason; forwards, L. Sweeney, A. Jeffs (captain), Kennedy, Sweeney, Scott, Wilson, Robson, Hiseock.

ATHLETICS V.W.A.A. MEETING

The regular meeting of the Victoria West Athletic Association, which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed on account of the Marathon race to be held in the horse show building to-night. The meeting will be held on Thursday at 8 p.m. instead, when business of more than ordinary importance will come up. A winding up of the affairs of the recent decade will take place, when all having tickets still outstanding are asked to settle up. At this meeting it will also be decided what teams will be entered from the club in the basketball leagues, so that all basket ballers want to be on hand.

The second division football players are also asked to turn out en masse, as there is some talk of entering a team in the second division Island league. The association has already entered the first division, and at this meeting it will definitely be decided whether to enter the second or not. General business will also take place.

THE TURF EMERYVILLE RACE

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Despite the previous assertion of Thomas U. Williams that the anti-betting law would in no way alter the conduct of racing at Emeryville, the California Jockey club has taken steps to so arrange the meet as to better insure against financial loss. Williams now announces that there would only be five days of racing each week, Tuesdays being eliminated from the programme. Moreover, the price of admission will be raised from $1.50 to $2.00. In this way, with the consequent reduction of the number of purses, it is said that the loss resulting from the absence of the bookmakers' tolls will be recouped.

WOMAN SHOTS HERSELF

Reno, Nev., Nov. 8.—With the blood congealed about a bullet hole in the temple, the body of Mrs. Rosamond Lannom, a sister of Mrs. Frank Shoupe of Tacoma, was found seated upright in a chair in her home here Saturday. A note found on a table nearby read: "Goodbye, I forgive you, I can't stand any longer. Don't let my sister know."

SPANISH ADVANCE

Meilla, Nov. 8.—After the day's march the Spanish division under the Infanta-Carlos seized the important strategic point of Hidim without firing a shot. This will be fortified. A squadron of the King's regiment, however, had an engagement with the tribesmen, and in a brilliant charge several officers were killed.

BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM

This is a condition (or disease) which does not give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a broken-down system. The vital force that sustains the system, the more prominent being sleeplessness, loss of appetite or weakness, depression of spirits and slight of energy for the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in such cases is increased vitality—vigor.

VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY

By any other known combination. So sure it is taken in accordance with the directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored.

NEEDS ANOTHER SEWERAGE LOAN

CITY MUST RAISE ADDITIONAL MONEY

Victoria Growing so Rapidly
That Difficulty Has Arisen
to Meet Situation.

In order to keep pace with the requirements of the city another loan to enable the council to proceed with the extension of the sewerage system will have to be arranged for at a very early date. So great has been the demand for additional sewers this year that all the money raised by the loan of last year has been exhausted, and the city engineer reports that there is an actual deficit of $4,000. There are a great many applications on hand for sewers, and work will be taken in hand just as soon as the necessary by-law has been passed to provide for the money required.

City Engineer Topp has prepared a list of the recent additions to the sewerage system of the city, with the cost of the same as follows:

Princess avenue, between Blanchard and Quadra streets.	$500.00
Turner and David streets.	1,000.00
Shakespeare street, between Deanman street and Edmonton road.	900.00
Princess avenue, via Queen's avenue to new school.	3,500.00
Chapman street, easterly from Cook street.	1,500.00
Hulton street, Madison and Cowan avenues.	2,000.00
Vining street, extension towards Fernwood road.	450.00
Dunedin street, George road to Douglas street.	1,500.00
Gorge road extension.	215.00
Fort street to Chestnut.	225.00
Queen's avenue, from Vancouver street, 300 feet east to foot of hill.	600.00
Belton avenue system, Victoria West.	10,125.00
Cook street, from May to Dallas road.	1,500.00
Parfield road, via Chester street.	125.00
Vancouver street, extension to south of lot 1144, block 267.	100.00
Topas avenue, via Douglas street.	2,100.00
McBride avenue, via Bay street to Douglas street.	1,500.00
Howard avenue extension.	700.00
Cornwall street, from lane south.	425.00
Collinson street extension.	630.00
Lydia, from Denman southerly.	400.00
Rutledge street, from Cook westerly.	750.00
Morrison, extension, to Fort to Oak Bay avenue.	900.00
Tell street, Oak Bay avenue to Leighton road.	1,500.00
Cook street, from May street to Dallas road.	1,800.00
Chapman street, easterly from Cook.	1,500.00
Belton avenue system, Victoria West.	10,125.00

Work street, Hillside to Market.
Belton avenue.

NEW GOLD CAMP IN ALASKAN TERRITORY

Frank Slavin, Now in City, Will Take in Supplies in Spring.

Frank Slavin has returned from the north and will likely spend the first part of the winter here. During the past year he has made his headquarters at White Horse where with others he is interested in mines which have been the subject of litigation for some time.

He is now interested in a new camp in Alaska known as Iditarod in the Kuskowin district south of the Yukon. Very rich findings have been made, Mr. Slavin says, and there will be a tremendous rush into that camp in the spring. He estimates that 20,000 miners will be there next summer.

In company with a few others the intention of Mr. Slavin is to build barges on the Yukon and with supplies, including horses, float down the river as soon as it opens about March, and get into the new camp with complete supplies.

The new field, he says, shows wonderful richness. On a 600-foot cross-cut an average of 25 cents a pan has been taken out. As high as $70 to the pan has been taken in some parts of the creek. The character of the ground is quite similar to what it was in the Klondike and Mr. Slavin expects to see a very rich camp spring up.

BRITISH TRADE

London, Nov. 8.—The October statement of the Board of Trade shows increases of $2,577,000 in imports and $4,616,000 in exports. The principal increase in imports was in cotton from America, and that in exports was in manufactured goods.

HALL CAINE NEW APOSTLE OF SOCIALISM

Famous Novelist Delivers Lecture in City Temple, London.

Hall Caine appeared before thousands of people who crowded the City Temple a few evenings ago as a Socialist, with the dreams of a new world as ideal and as unreal as all those Utopias which have been set before a credulous people, says the London Express.

He stood in the pulpit addressing a meeting of the New Theologians, who have banded themselves together under the leadership of Rev. R. J. Campbell, under the name of the Progressive League, which, as Mr. Campbell said, stands for "theological freedom and social regeneration."

With his long hair falling over his collar, his bright, wildly roving eyes and passionate gestures, Mr. Caine changed in the twinkling of an eye from the peaceful, popular novelist to the Hyde Park orator offering Socialism as a panacea for all ills.

The Messiah, for which all nations and creeds were waiting, is expressed according to Hall Caine in the idea of Socialism.

"This great forward movement into which we are now entering is only another form of the Messianic idea," he said.

"The Lord's Prayer is the only possible charter to the only true Socialism. There is some danger that Socialism may become God-less; all the more reason therefore that the church should take hold of the great movement."

"The theory of Socialism is founded on religion. Government in the past has been based on brute force, in the future it will be based on moral ideas. Government in the past has been chiefly occupied in manufacturing armies, navies and making courts of law, prisons and penitentiaries—in the future it will build schools, colleges, institutes and hospitals."

"Government in the past has relied on judges, wardens, policemen and men who build Dreadnoughts, in the future it will rely on preachers, teachers, philosophers, scientists, physicians and persons whose business it is to save and not to destroy."

"Government in the past made it its business to protect property, the future government will consider it its duty to protect human happiness."

"Government in the past has been for maintaining power, in the future it will be for protecting weakness."

George Bernard Shaw drew attention to the Socialist speeches now being made by Lloyd George and others of the Liberal party.

"Mr. Chamberlain's opponents," he said, "found that unless they could get a considerable sum of money—a good surplus—from somewhere they would be beaten by tariff reform. Accordingly they then began to make the sort of speeches which I have been making these last thirty years."

The Progressive League, Mr. Campbell pointed out, has a membership of between four and five thousand.

LOSES LIFE IN FIRE

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 8.—One girl lost her life and sixteen other persons were injured on Saturday in a fire which destroyed a machine shop, factory of John S. Powell, at Plymouth, near here. Powell was badly injured while helping his 14 female employees to escape.

OPERATION ON CAMPANIA

New York, Nov. 8.—With the ship rolling in a heavy sea and plunging along at the rate of 21 knots, a successful operation for appendicitis was performed upon a passenger on the last eastward trip of the steamer Campania, which has arrived from Liverpool. Charles Baxter, a steward, was the patient, and the operation was performed by Surgeon Robert Bruce, of the Campania, assisted by Sir Alfred Keogh, surgeon-general of the British army, and Dr. Owens Williams, a Liverpool physician, who were returning together from the medical congress held in Washington. It was thought that slowing down would make the ship roll more, consequently the engines forced the big liner along at 21 knots speed all the time the operation was in progress, a period of forty minutes. Baxter is convalescing satisfactorily, and is now in a hospital in Liverpool.

BLOW OPEN SAFE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Safe blowers, evidently well versed in the use of the pneumatic drill, cracked the safe in the office of the Seattle Varnish Company at Fremont early on Saturday, and completely wrecked the office walls and fixtures. The robbers secured little loot for their pains as the safe contained only $10 in gold and silver.

TRAINS COLLIDE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—One woman was injured and two engines badly wrecked in a head-on collision between an inbound Columbia & Puget Sound passenger train and an outbound extra Milwaukee freight near Van Asselt on Saturday.

The accident occurred on the C. & P. S. tracks, which are used jointly by the two roads. The passenger was a new train put on this morning for Inland traffic, connecting Seattle and Tacoma. It consisted of an engine and one passenger car. The crews on the engines escaped injury by jumping. The woman was but slightly hurt, and left the scene without giving her name.

FORMER SPEAKER DEAD

London, Nov. 8.—The Rt. Hon. William Court Gully, first Viscount Selby, died on Saturday, aged 74.

The deceased peer was Speaker of the House of Commons from 1895 to 1905, and M. P. for Arnhem; he was a member of the International Court of Arbitration, and was created Viscount in 1905; he married in 1865 the late Elizabeth Anne Watford (died 1898), daughter of the late Thomas Selby, and is succeeded by his eldest son—the Hon. James William Herchel Gully, who was born in 1867.

TWO MEN SLAIN

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 8.—Two men were killed at a railroad camp near Centreville on Saturday. It is said they were shot to death while attempting to rob Italian laborers. The men slain were camp followers, and a general shooting followed the discovery of their alleged intention.

NEW JAPANESE AMBASSADOR

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Announcement was made here Saturday that Baron Yasuo Uchida has been formally appointed by the emperor of Japan as his ambassador to the United States. He will succeed Baron Kogoro Takahira who at present is in Tokio. News of Uchida's appointment was contained in a telegram received at the state department from United States Ambassador O'Brien at Tokio.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES INDIGESTION, GAS, HEARTBURN OR HEADACHE FROM STOMACH

A Little Diapiesin Will Promptly Regulate Any Out-of-order Stomach.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Diapiesin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eruptions of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach, and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapiesin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapiesin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapiesin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out-of-order and uncomfortable now you can get relief in five minutes.

THE REICHSBANK IN GERMANY

HOW INSTITUTION IS CONDUCTED

The German Semi-National Bank Has Many Distinctive Points.

The Reichsbank of Germany is not virtually a government institution, although the government has a supervisory interest, says Bertha Knobloch in an article given in the Canadian Trade Review. The government supervision is exercised by a bank-curatorium, consisting of the imperial chancellor and four other members, one of whom is selected by the emperor, three by the federal council. These supervisors meet quarterly and receive a report of the condition of the bank and the results of its operations. The Reichsbank directorate is the managing and executive board, and the representative of the Reichsbank in its dealings with the public. The president is at the head of the directorate. He, as well as the vice-president and the members of the directorate, are appointed for life by the emperor after they have been proposed by the federal council. The officers of the Reichsbank may not own any shares of the bank. The shareholders are represented by a central committee consisting of fifteen members and a like number of substitutes, elected at the general meeting from among those shareholders who are the registered owners of shares for a minimum amount of 3,000 marks. Of the members of this committee must live in Germany, and nine must be residents of Berlin. The capital of the Reichsbank (originally 120,000,000 marks) is at present 180,000,000 marks, divided into 40,000 shares at 3,000 marks each and 60,000 shares at 1,000 marks each. Of the amount of profit realized from the transaction of the Reichsbank a regular dividend of 3 1/2 p. c. is first paid to the shareholders, 20 p. c. of the remainder is then transferred to the reserve fund, as long as the same shall not have reached the amount of 60,000,000 marks; of the balance, one-fourth goes to the shareholders, three-fourths to the empire. Should the profit not amount to full 3 1/2 p. c. on the capital, the deficit has to be made up out of the reserve fund. In the event that an issue of shares of the Reichsbank should yield a premium, the same becomes part of the reserve fund. Dividends are declared after the lapse of four years from the date of maturity of the same, shall accrue to the bank. The Reichsbank and four other banks in Germany have the privilege of note emission. The issue of notes is subject to the so-called indirect contingent; that is, notes up to a certain amount may be issued, but the balance in short-term commercial paper—the bank in this way maintains a sound ratio between cash reserve note circulation. The Reichsbank regulates the money circulation throughout the empire; it is one of its duties to facilitate the balancing of payments and to provide for the employment of available capital. The four years outline the sphere of operation of the Reichsbank as follows: To purchase and sell gold and silver in bars and coins.

To discount drafts which mature in three months at most, and which bear as a rule three, but at least two signatures of parties known to be solvent. To make interest-bearing loans on collateral for not longer than three months. (a) On gold and silver, coin and in bars; (b) on the following domestic securities up to at most 75 per cent. of their market value: debentures of the empire, the states, cities, districts and provinces, as well as on those debentures that are guaranteed by the empire or the states; further, on fully paid railroad shares and bonds of operating railroads; finally, on bonds of the Land-schaften (credit institutions for landed proprietors) or of German agricultural credit institutions supervised by the government. The bank also makes interest-bearing loans for not longer than three months on foreign government securities, railroad bonds guaranteed by foreign governments; maximum loans 50 per cent. of market value; (a) on drafts signed by persons known to be solvent, with a discount of at least 5 per cent. of their market value; and on mortgages of merchandise stored at the counting, to two-thirds of their value. It may invest in the above-mentioned conservative domestic securities; the acquisition of the same, however, is permitted only to the limit authorized by the Reichsbank directorate. One of its duties is to attend to collections and to render payments after having obtained security, and to issue drafts or giro transfers on its branches and correspondents; to purchase for outside account, securities and bullion after security has been given, and to sell after delivery has been effected. Additionally, the Reichsbank is empowered to accept for deposit and giro account moneys which are or are not interest-bearing deposits, however, may not exceed that of the amount and reserve fund of the bank. It accepts securities and other valuables for safe keeping and in trust. The Reichsbank must at all times make known the rate at which it discounts drafts or grants loans on collateral. The organization of the Reichsbank has effectively stood the test of severe financial crisis during its life of more than thirty years, and, has always fulfilled its task of being a national stronghold in times of need.

LECTURING TOUR OF 20,000 MILES

Leut. Shackleton's Contract to Utter More Than 1,200,000 Words.

A record lecturing tour was commenced by Lieutenant Shackleton on the first of this month, when he inaugurated his public lecturing at the Queen's hall, London.

"Never before," said the manager of the lecture agency which has arranged the programme, "has such a long list of lectures been set down to the name of a famous man for one single tour."

All the principal towns and cities in the United Kingdom and the chief capitals of Europe, including Paris, Rome, Berlin, Vienna, Budapest, Dresden and Munich will be visited. Then will follow a visit to the United States, where lectures in at least thirty of the chief cities will be delivered.

At the very least Lieutenant Shackleton will tell the story of his dash to the South Pole 123 times. He will listen to 123 votes of thanks to himself and have to formulate 123 replies. In travelling between the towns at which he is lecturing, including his American visit, Lieutenant Shackleton will cover over 20,000 miles. He will address more than 200,000 people. His lectures, if he speaks continuously would extend over seven days sixteen hours thirty minutes, and he will utter more than 1,200,000 words.

Of the European lectures eighty-three will be delivered in 122 days, from November 1st to March 2nd of next year. Twelve will be given in England. Then follows a visit to Paris, where two lectures will be given on November 14th and 15th. The British tour will be resumed on November 18th at Edinburgh, and from that date to December 30th—fifty-three days—there will be thirty-five lectures.

Then follow visits to the great continental cities. Between January 2nd and January 21st—nineteen days—fourteen lectures will be given, including four in Berlin, two in Vienna, and one in Rome. Returning to England thirty more lectures will be given, making seventy-seven in all in the United Kingdom.

A sample of the arduous task which Mr. Shackleton has set himself will be found in the week from December 10th to December 17th. On the 10th he will lecture in Bedford in the afternoon and Windsor in the evening; on the 11th at Leamington and at Malvern; on the 12th at Belfast; on the 14th at Dublin; on the 15th at Cork; and on the 17th at Birmingham.

"PALE AND DEPRESSED"

Anaemia, Bad Blood; Indigestion, Sick Headache, Dizziness.

Success of Dr. Hamilton's Pills

For her life and health Mrs. E. K. Wilkinson is indebted to the marvellous curative properties of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Her brightness, activity and present good looks are due to nothing else but using this grand medicine. From her home in Newton where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anaemic and lacking in vitality. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever-increasing anaemia made me weaker day by day. Constant head aches, specks before the eyes and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills—the improvement although slow was sure. I gradually got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor of my face was replaced by a bright, rosy color which proved that a strong medicine was at work." In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deathly despair to robust health.

You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—beware of the substitute that offers you any pills, except Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers, or The Cataract Company, Kingston, Ont.

DREDGING OPERATIONS ON STEWART RIVER

Ex-Governor Ogilvie Says Season's Work Proves Satisfactory.

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—Dredging operations on a large scale were conducted this season on the Stewart river by the Yukon-Gold Dredging Company, a corporation organized several years ago by Mr. William Ogilvie, ex-governor of the Yukon, and now controlled by Toronto and Kansas City capitalists. The gold output was very satisfactory. It is expected that the next few years will see many additional dredges at work along the river and its tributaries. The company owns a concession comprising 110 miles of the river bed above and below Fraser Falls.

W. M. Ogilvie, M. E., a son of the ex-governor, has arrived from the north en route to his home at Ottawa. He had charge of the work during the past season, employing about 30 men, most of whom also came south by the same steamer.

The first dredge, with a daily capacity of 2,400 cubic yards, was installed last year. Mr. Ogilvie left here in April with lumber and machinery for a second dredge, with a capacity of 2,600 cubic yards daily. He built the dredge and had it in operation for six weeks before the end of the season. It worked very satisfactorily. The ground worked proved to be good pay, with fairly uniform value, with occasional very rich spots. At different periods coarse nuggets were scooped up by the machinery. Mr. Ogilvie seemed elated at the result of the clean-up, but declined to furnish the figures. The gold was marketed at Dawson. It is the intention of the company to install additional dredges over a period of years, as the area embraced in the concession is so extensive. It is also proposed to harness a waterpower for the purpose of developing electrical energy for operating the gold-saving plants.

There was a great deal of successful placer mining last summer on Duncan creek and other creeks which form tributaries of the Mayo river, itself a tributary of the Stewart river. The region is not altogether unknown as gold was first found in the district five years ago, but this season witnessed the discovery of much new and rich ground. The region is situated about 60 miles beyond the scene of dredging operations.

There were between 200 and 300 men on Duncan creek and other streams in that section this summer and I have reason to believe that most of them did very well," said Mr. Ogilvie. "One operator, Mr. Middleton, is credited with having cleaned up $20,000. The ground is not so rich as the Klondike of placer days, but it is good pay and I look to see a big production next year. There are vast regions up there that have never been visited by white men. I have no doubt that sooner or later gold discoveries of world-wide importance will be made. Lode mining will also follow later, as there are good indications of free-milling rock, copper and silver-lead throughout much of this territory."

FINANCIAL REFORM IN UNITED STATES

Monetary Commission Has Not Yet Adopted Any Definite Plan.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—After an elaborate dinner Saturday night at the Congress hotel, United States Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, chairman of the National Monetary Commission explained to the members of the Commercial Club of Chicago, the operations of the commission, and referred in a general way to its purposes. There were about 250 men at the tables, among the number being some of national repute. The occasion was regarded as of special importance because it brought out the first explanation by Mr. Aldrich of the plans of an organization which has been formed for the avowed purpose of reforming the financial system of the United States.

To those of his hearers who expected Senator Aldrich to use the occasion for the promulgation of the central bank project, or any other plan or theory of national finance, his speech must have been in the nature of a surprise. He declared at the outset "that the question of a definite plan for reforming existing conditions has not yet been taken up by the commission." And he added that no plan would be adopted "until after an opportunity has been afforded for the most careful and exhaustive study of all the conditions that surround the problem."

He declared that he had accepted the present occasion as an opportunity "to make an earnest appeal to you, as the representative men of an important section of the country, to give to the commission the aid of your valuable counsel and co-operation in securing the adoption of a satisfactory remedial plan, one that will surely conserve and promote the vital interests of all the people of this nation."

A. B. Irskine, of Vancouver, was in the city Saturday.

Chas. Deering, of Vancouver, who spent last week in the city, returned to the mainland yesterday.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney and bride have reached the city from England. They are guests at the Driford at present.

W. J. Goepel, of Nelson, and his son, P. A. Goepel, are spending a few days in this city and are registered at the Balmoral hotel.

Mrs. W. Chanton, child and maid, arrived from Vancouver yesterday and are staying at the Empress. They will spend a day or two in the city.

Mr. Herbert Macklin, of Simon Fraser & Co., Ltd., is making a visit to Victoria. Queen Charlotte Island, leaving by Princess Beatrice on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frederick J. Hull, Jr., 120 Ontario street, will be at home on Wednesday, November 10th, and afterwards on the first Wednesday of each month.

G. F. Smith, recently principal of Rosedale school, Toronto, has arrived in the city, and will enter into business with his brother, J. H. Smith. Prior to his departure from the east, Mr. Smith was banquipped by sixty school principals.

MISSION SCHOOL.

Anniversary in Connection With Chinese Institution Was Great Success.

The anniversary in connection with the Methodist Sunday school at the Chinese mission, held a few days ago, was a most successful affair. The very heavy downpour of rain did not deter a large number from being present to cheer those who took part in the exercises. The songs and choruses by the school gave great delight and received the hearty applause of the audience. The recitations were well rendered and as usual the attempts of the Chinese to use the English language brought to light the fact that our tongue is an exceedingly difficult one for a foreigner to learn. But the children, and the young men as well, proved that they were making fast progress in the language and are becoming better acquainted with our words and sentences. The Rev. A. N. Henderson occupied the chair and gave a short address. The Rev. A. N. Miller also gave an address, while the Rev. T. E. Holling delighted the audience by singing a solo.

The superintendent's report showed the following enrollment:
Teachers and officers, 12; scholars, 83; cradle roll, 20; home department, 7; total enrollment, 122.

The smallest attendance was 21, on January 19th, when the day was unusually cold.

The largest attendance was 84, on September 26th, which was rainy Sunday.

Last Sunday there were 74 present, the largest attendance on record except that of rainy day.

Average attendance for the year, 53; average attendance for the past month, 43; collections for the year, $45.30.

The following programme was given: Opening chorus, "With Your Anchor Hold" prayer by Missionary Mr. Chan; chairman's address, Rev. Henderson, chairman; song and recitation, primary class; recitation, Samuel Chue; exercise by intermediate girls; solo by Rev. Mr. Holling; recitation, Dong Noon; song by primary pupils; superintendent's report; solo and chorus by school, "The Best Friend to Have is Jesus"; promise exercise, young men; song by intermediate boys; recitation by David Chue; address, Rev. A. N. Miller; solo, Mr. Chan; recitation, Boak Sing (Chinese Bible); collection; closing chorus, "There is Sunshine"; Benediction.

Something New—Whole wheat bread with a soft crust, at the Central Bakery, City, 604 Yates street.

Merchants' Lunch from 12 to 2 p. m. at the Poodle Dog.

CURE OF NERVOUSNESS.

Nervousness and its acute form in the nervous breakdown it is well known can be largely prevented by self-control and precaution against worry. The difficulty many women find, however, is to keep from worrying over what may appear very necessary trifles.

The following are some useful hints given by Dr. Mitchell in a book of "Selfhelp for Nervous Women," which deals with the subject in a popular manner, and yet will be found very useful by both men and women who are victims of nervous strain.

System, he points out, is one of the secrets of peace of mind. "Make as many of the things you have to do automatic by repetition as possible, thus relieving the controlling centres of some of their duties, and giving more ability and opportunity for the performance of higher functions."

"For example, mere punctuality in the matter of doing minor things, such as letting us say, as household duties, relieve you of one form of worry. You will no longer find it necessary to discuss with yourself when you shall do this or that; the time is fixed. The habit will soon become fastened upon you."

A somewhat rigid punctuality has, too, an effect in improving the balance of nervous people for good in a way and to an extent not easy to account for.

"To make your necessary duties and work as systematic as possible is an approach to performing them automatically and saves much anxiety, does away with the constant making of decisions and the over-consideration of trifles."

"A wise precaution for women not strong, and a measure of great value and helpfulness for anyone who exhibits tendencies to nervous breakdown or has cause to fear such an effect, is to have an hour or two of absolute physical quiet and peace daily at a fixed time."

LENA DUTHIE.

The interpreter of Scottish Folklore, who is to be in A. O. U. W. Hall on Evening of November 10th.

fixed time. It may be hard to arrange this, but it is less troublesome than a long illness!

"Insist that between certain hours you shall be totally undisturbed by visitors, servants, household questions, or any need less serious than the house being on fire. If you need physical rest, get it then; if you only want peace and time to regain disturbed balance, the retirement may be made profitable with a book, but do not take this time for cleaning up neglected duties; let it be understood and used as a period of freedom from all care."

"If more repose than this is necessary an hour after the midday meal is a good time to choose. Whichever of these is done, it is most important that punctuality and regularity in it should be observed."

"Let it be most clearly and emphatically said that the hour thus set aside must not be used as a time for clearing one's desk, for finishing delayed work, in short, for duties or labors, but kept sacredly for rest of body and mind."

"How best to seek rest is a matter depending on the conditions of the person and the day. It may be merely physical repose that is needed; it may be mental quiet with the assurance already insisted upon that no interruption will occur."

"Those who make a habit of this quiet hour as a measure of self-protection, even those who are not nervous, will find in it varied possibilities of usefulness. For instance, in people who are not of worrying disposition or overgiven to self-consideration, this disturbed time offers opportunity for calm examination of one's self, for arranging and purging of acts and motives and the settlement of the innumerable insistent questions which must have cool and calm attention for their best solution."

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

Sleeves are long and elaborate. Tiny, wavy "bangs" are again in vogue.

The old-fashioned polonaise is coming back.

No gowns fit so tightly as they did last year.

Skirts still grow wider, but they will not flare.

Jackets will be short and will button up the side.

Odd settings are a feature of much attractive jewellery.

Pale yellow appears everywhere in wraps, gowns and hats.

Most dresses touch the floor, but none of them are long.

Velvet is making up some of the handsomest walking gowns.

Princess forms prevail for dinner dresses and evening wear.

Soft, wide meshes are found in nearly all the face veils.

Light, filmy chifon muffs will be in style for evening affairs.

The bolero is expected to be in great favor the coming season.

Among the new handbags are those of black moire, beaded with jet.

Gold or silver tissue is used as a lining to sheer net yokes and sleeves.

White furs of every sort and kind will be seen before the holidays set in.

A Parisian fancy is for black shoes, tied with ribbon the color of the gown.

There is a great amount of gold and silver tissue used in dress ornamentation.

Seasonable goods are heavy and soft; brocades and moire are among the favorites.

The plain ribbon, pinned around the head like a surgical bandage is very much in vogue.

Braiding still has its part in fashion, but it is not nearly so freely used as last season.

With the continued vogue for collarless gowns for house wear necklaces will continue to be worn.

Passencherie buttons in all tones are modish, and buttons are quite as much to the fore as ever.

Many turbans of draped panne velvet are seen; they are to be had in almost every shade of every color.

Some of the prettiest of the new capes for evening wear are cut circular and with fitted yoke.

The large hat is being restricted to dress occasions; small hats are in vogue for all ordinary wear.

The heavy crepe mourning veil is now rarely seen; instead there is a light net veil, bordered with crepe.

The fur collar not long ago was the recognized trimming for a cloak, but now embroidery takes its place.

Veils no longer are drawn tightly around the face; they must not touch the face at all, even at the chin.

For becomingness to relieve the all-black hat, many girls are having a narrow row of gold around the brim.

A feature in fall millinery is the combination of fur and plumes; this novelty appears in the giant picture models.

Satin charmeuse remains the favorite fabric for ball and dinner gowns, and, in fact, for evening gowns of all descriptions.

The flannelettes which are new this fall are exceedingly pretty. For night clothes and negligees they are especially pretty.

One of the new silks, quite similar in appearance to the popular rajah, is called darby silk. It is a silk and cotton mixture.

The zibeline used this winter differs from that of ten years ago in that the new appears ribbed and, in its finish, more like cloth.

Many of the newest dresses button or hook in the back; while some fasten down from the shoulder across the back to the opposite side.

The brims of many of the new hats are faced with ribbon, doing away with the necessity for hemming or otherwise finishing the edges.

Plaids seem to be the favorite wear of school girls, both large and small. These plaids are generally of the large and conspicuous patterns.

Some of the motor bonnets trimmed with chifon have the chifon strings so arranged that they may be used as veils when occasion demands.

A new evening slipper of Russian net over colored satin lining, the heels are colored to match. There is a daintily jeweled buckle at the toe.

Maline bows in white as well as in colors may be found, ready to wear, in the shops. These little accessories give a dainty touch to a costume.

Bands of the same material as the gown, finished with a simple row of stitching, are used as trimming on many of the smartest fall costumes.

Cloth of gold slippers are in fashion for all gowns trimmed with gold lace, and some bronze slippers embroidered with beads cost as much as the gowns.

Aligretes and plumes for the coiffure are disappearing to give place to the less dignified flower and vine, or tinsel and gold, and silver leaf tissue.

Ribbons, lace and feathers are combined to make some of the alluring neck pieces. Marabout, too, is often found in these altogether charming combinations.

Among the newest things in the fastenings for headgear are pins with bugs and beetles on top. Some are of silver and some of gold. They have tiny jewel eyes.

Bags of fur, matching the neckpiece and muff, are among the novelties of the season. Others are of leather, fur trimmed. They are usually silver-mounted.

Among the new bedspreads are those which have scallops instead of the usual hem or fringe. These are especially effective if used on a bed provided with a valance.

Coats continue long. Tailors are striving to accentuate their narrowness in back, while breadth across the front, especially at the shoulders, seems desirable.

New evening coats are all on the burnous or kimono lines. In coloring they contrast with the dress underneath, but the linings are the same shade of the dress, and very often of the same material.

Pretty girls, pretty costumes, funny characters, good music and a real jolly time at St. George's ball next Tuesday.

The fumes of burnt coffee form a good disinfectant.

MADE WELL AND STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dovedale, Sask.—"I was a sufferer from female weakness—monthly periods irregular and painful and a bad discharge, backache and wretched headache, and had felt weak ever since the birth of my twins. I tried doctors but got no relief. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after three weeks I was feeling much better, and now I am well again."

—Mrs. BESSIE BLY, Dovedale, Sask., Canada.

Another Woman Cured.

Christiana, Tenn.—"I suffered from the worst form of female trouble so that at times I thought I could not live, and my nerves were in a dreadful condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a different woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold to suffering women."

—Mrs. MARY WOOD, R.F.D.3.

If you belong to that countless army of women who have been troubled with "female ills," don't hesitate to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years this famous remedy has been the standard for all forms of female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, fibroid tumors, ulceration, irregularities, backache, and nervous prostration.

STEAMER GOVERNOR HAS ROUGH TRIP

Runs Into Gale Off Cape Blanco
and Arrives at San Francisco 15 Hours Late.

(Times Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—The Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Governor arrived here this morning from Seattle 15 hours late. The vessel was delayed by a heavy southeast gale off Cape Blanco. The storm broke Saturday night at 8 o'clock and continued unabated until noon yesterday. A terrific gale swept over the ship, carrying away two iron ventilators on the port side and twisting a gate of steel rods as if it had been made of straw.

AMBERGRIS FOUND IN PUGET SOUND

Large Quantity of What is Thought to Be Valuable Material Picked Up.

If James Currie and a companion are not disappointed in a find made in the Strait of Juan de Fuca, they are made richer by a matter of $125,000 for the mere effort of picking up a bundle of what they and others believe is ambergris, weighing slightly more than 150 pounds. The only possibility of disappointment lies in the error of those who have seen the find that has been brought here. Without exception these pronounce the substance ambergris, worth in the market to-day $42 an ounce.

Currie and his companion were in a small boat and short distance to the west of Protection Island when they observed a floating mass that was at first taken to be the carcass of an animal, but the odor peculiar to ambergris, sickeningly sweet, disclosed the possibility of a rare discovery. Taking their find to Port Townsend the prize soon became the object of close scrutiny and investigation. Doctors have made a superficial examination only, but state the belief that a test will disclose that the mass is ambergris. The substance ambergris is highly valuable in the manufacture of perfume, and is an excretion of the sperm whale.

TO AID SHIPPING.

United States Revenue Cutters Being Distributed Along Coast.

All revenue cutters on the Pacific coast have been assigned to new stations since their return from the Behring sea and the Arctic ocean. A new system for cruising these vessels has been inaugurated with the intention of making every vessel of special value to shipping interests in the matter of assisting mariners in distress.

For this purpose the cutters have been stationed along the Washington, Oregon and California coasts and each has been given particular cruising orders.

The Tacoma will be on Puget Sound and the vicinity of Cape Flattery; the Snohomish at Neah Bay, Wash.; Strait of Fuca; the Manning at Astoria, Ore.; the McCulloch at San Francisco; the Perry at San Pedro; the Bear at San Diego, and the Thetis at Honolulu. Revenue cutter officials believe this disposition of the service on the Pacific coast will prove of much benefit to commerce generally.

LAST OF SEALERS HAS ARRIVED

VERA BEAT IN LATE
SATURDAY NIGHT

Total of 3,556 Sealskins for Season, Divided Among Five Schooners.

After beating up the Straits against the strong gale which was blowing on Saturday night, the sealing schooner Vera dropped her anchor early Sunday morning at the entrance to the harbor, and this morning her 3,556 skins are being re-salted, packed in barrels and shipped to London, England, where they will be sold by auction.

Speaking of his trip, Captain Heater said that it was very uneventful. It was the worst season they had ever had in point of weather, but they had made a good catch for the short time they were out. They had a crew of 5 whites and 22 Indians. It took them 22 days to come down the coast, and on the 9th and 10th of October they encountered very severe gales. The first was a nor'easter, and the following day it shifted and blew from the southwest. On the West Coast of Vancouver Island, too, they had a severe sou'easter.

The Thomas F. Bayard, which was mentioned in the Times as arriving on Saturday afternoon, also had a very successful season, and Captain Blackstad claims that it would have been nearly twice as good if they had not been interfered with by the American revenue cutter.

The day after the schooner's guns were sealed was the finest otter hunting day that the captain had ever seen. There was 34 hours of perfect calm and plenty of otter around. The captain said he was sure they would have taken from forty to sixty otter skins if they had been allowed to continue the hunt.

The captain of the Bear told Capt. Blackstad that he had received orders to seal up the guns of all sealers. When asked why he did not seal the guns of Captain Apollon's American schooner, the American officer said that he had no authority to do so, as that vessel was not sealing.

When the Bayard was at Dutch Harbor she was short of water and a gale was brewing. The captain applied to the authorities at the wharf, but they would neither give them water nor sell it. He then went to a creek and helped himself. The American officers taking no notice of them. They put to sea in a gale, glad to get away from so inhospitable a place.

The body of the Indian, Charlie Howard, was buried at sea, the captain reading the burial service. The man belonged to the Neuchet tribe, and as long as the body lay below not an Indian could be induced to enter the forecastle.

All the schooners have now arrived, and the total catch for the season with five schooners is 3,556 seals and 18 otters. The Jessie and the Eva Marie will not much more than pay expenses for the trip, but the other three vessels, Thomas F. Bayard, Vera and Pocahontas, will make money for their owners.

San Francisco—Arrived: Barque Indiana from Castle; steamer M. P. Plant from Coos Bay; steamer Newburg from Gray's Harbor; steamer Santa Monica from Grays Harbor. Sailed: Steamer Falcon for Portland; steamer Bowdoin for Astoria; schooner Advant for Coos Bay.

Portland—Arrived: French barque Pierre Antonine from New Castle, N. S. W. Sailed: German steamer Walkure for St. Vincent; British steamer Inverlay for Wellington, N.Z. Los Angeles—Arrived: Schooner Mindoro from Everett; steam schooner Schnaik from Everett.

FLYING VISIT.

Capt. Baird, who Was Here Yesterday,
Tells of Steamers.

Capt. Baird, of the Andrew Weir Co., was in the city yesterday and has returned to Seattle again. He will probably pay another visit to this port during the week.

Capt. Baird has received word that the steamer Miner, one of the smaller vessels being added to the Weir fleet, was launched during the last week in September. She will be of 8,000 tons. It is expected that this vessel will be used either in the Calcutta trade or in the Australian mail line. Capt. Thomson, formerly of the Jeserick, will have the Miner. The frames for a second vessel of this same class are already up. Rapid progress is being made in the construction of the steamer Oteric and Luseric, which are completing at the Russell yards on the Clyde. These liners are for the Oriental trade from Puget Sound, and will have accommodation for 200 first-class passengers. They are to have wireless telegraphy, and in every respect to be strictly modern. They are vessels of 11,000 tons register.

LUMBER SCHOONER BUFFETED BY GALE

The Eva Arrives at the Golden Gate in Sinking Condition.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Stripped of canvas in a terrific storm far out to sea, the schooner Eva, owned by Charles Nelson & Sons, of San Francisco, limped into port in distress and in a sinking condition Saturday. When the vessel reached the Golden Gate her decks were but a few inches above the water. She anchored off Sausalito.

The ship left Grays Harbor, Washington, on October 8th, for Hawaii with 100,000 feet of lumber. Splendid weather was encountered for the first week, then adverse winds set in and drove the vessel northward for several days. When off the mouth of the Columbia river a gale sprang up and the sails, though closely reefed, were torn from the spars by the violence of the wind. The forecastle was flooded and the sailors were forced to abandon their quarters. They were compelled to subsist on meager, uncooked rations as the galley fires had been extinguished by the waves which broke over the schooner during the three days that the storm lasted.

When the wind abated observations taken by Captain Olson indicated that San Francisco was the nearest port and a course was laid for the Golden Gate. But little progress was made as the schooner was water-logged and was kept aloft only by the cargo of lumber chained to the decks.

When the harbor was sighted to-day many of the men, ill and weak from exposure, became hysterical from joy.

NEW SCHEDULE.

One Steamer Each Daily to Vancouver and Seattle, Leaving Here
After Midnight.

The change in schedule on the C. P. R. ferry steamer took effect yesterday. The Princess Charlotte and the Princess Victoria continuing on the run, one going to Seattle and the other to Vancouver. This leaves this city with only one steamer a day each way, both leaving just after midnight and arriving in the afternoon, the Seattle boat and the Vancouver boat at 5:30.

GOLF LINKS PARK IS SELLING WELL

New Residential District Meets
With Ready Sale This Morning.

That the advantages of Golf Links Park, the delightful new residential suburb just placed on the market, are fully appreciated by discerning investors is evidenced by the fact that during this morning—the first on which opportunity for buying has been presented—no less than $10,000 worth of lots had found eager buyers. The property is an ideal one for artistic homes, and the park may be expected to fill rapidly with the handsome type of residences. Conditions are imposed in the sale of lots that purchasers shall erect only such buildings as are in harmony with the scene and locality. The facts that the advantages of city life, in tramway, light, telephone, water, sewerage and kindred services are here, combined with the delights of rural residence, should make these building sites go even as the proverbial "hot cakes."

Upwards of $10,000 sold in this the first morning that the choice residential lots in Golf Links Park have been in the market would seem to indicate that reality is far from inactive, and home buyers are impressed, as well they may be, with the unique congregated advantages of this ideal suburb. A locality combining the rarest scenic charm and the fine tonic qualities of country air with street car, telephone, water, electric light and kindred city conveniences is not easy to find, and for this reason one may look for the disappearance of the last lot of the last available lot within many days. Oak Bay has during several years past been a favored district for residences of the better class, and Golf Links Park combines all the special attractions of Oak Bay. That it will remain an exclusive district of handsome homes is guaranteed by the building conditions that are attached in each sale consummated.

CONSERVATIVES IN LILLOOET DIVIDED

Machine Candidate Gets Nomination Over Popular Man.

(Special to the Times.)
Clinton, B. C., Nov. 6.—All was not harmony at the Conservative convention here on Wednesday, and there is a wide split in the party ranks which renders absolutely certain Mark Eagleson's re-election. The convention was a stormy one and lasted until after midnight. James Bell, who is very popular in the district, was the choice of the Conservatives generally, and in a fair convention he would have secured the nomination. The convention was packed, however, and the choice fell on the machine nominee, Archibald McDonald. He polled twelve votes to six for Bell. In addition there were two ballots spoiled, which had evidently been marked for Bell, but the delegates got cold feet and scratched their ballots.

ORIENTALS LEAVING TO-MORROW AFTERNOON

Hindus Going Back to Native
Land to Avoid Canadian Winter.

Steamer Tanga Maru, when she leaves here to-morrow afternoon for the Orient, will take a large number of passengers. These will be mostly Japanese, Chinese and Hindus. The last steamer of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha line took several Hindus back to their native land. They do not like the winter here, and during the time they have been here they have been burning good money, and many of them have now saved enough money to carry them home and to keep them for some time after they get there.

Since the dropping of the boycott of the Japanese steamers by the Chinese there have been a number of Chinese travelling each way and the number has been steadily increasing.

Don't get Sea or Train Sick

Bishop Taylor-Smith, Chaplain General of the British Army, has kindly given us permission to publicly state that he has at various times ordered supplies of Mother's Sea and Train Sick Remedy and that he has found it most effective. Recommended by such papers as London Daily Express and the press generally in Great Britain and America. Analyzed by Sir Charles A. Cameron, C. B., M. D. Guaranteed perfectly harmless and if not satisfactory money refunded. Write for booklet, press notices and testimonials from prominent people. For sale at all first-class druggists or send direct to Mothersill Remedy Co., 217 Cleveland Bldg., Detroit, Michigan, 19 St. Bridge street, London, E. C.

GOMPERS REVIEWS INJUNCTION CASE

not be pronounced, when he had determined on the sentence in advance, all these as well as the matter and manner of the arrangement for the scene and the delivery of the opinion and sentence indicated the unfitness of the man to wear the judicial robe and occupy the judicial position.

What are the offences for which Mitchell, Morrison and I are sentenced to long months of imprisonment, and the ignominy of being classified as criminals? We have dared to defend our constitutional rights as men and as citizens, despite the injunction of a court which sought to invade the rights of free speech and free press secured to the Anglo-Saxon people centuries ago by the Magna Charta and clinched by the adoption of the first amendment to the constitution of the United States. Even if we had been guilty of unlawful conspiracy and coercion and intimidation—which we were not—surely there should be some more adequate punishment than by a process of injunction. In fact, existing laws do provide greater punishment for these offences, and we specifically submit that if we are guilty of them, we should be tried by the due process of law before a jury of our people and if found guilty, punished as the law provides, rather than be subject of a judge who, solely determines the sufficiency charge the guilt of the defendant, and who imposes punishment as his whim may prompt.

As you will see, this case arose under the injunction proceedings and court decisions in the case of the Buck Stove and Range Company against the American Federation of Labor, December, 1907. The technicalities of the case were soon lost sight of in the battle to preserve the great principles of human liberty which were involved.

I repeat and emphasize this fact that the doctrine that the citizen must yield obedience to every order of the court notwithstanding that order transcends natural human rights guaranteed by the constitution of our country, is vicious and repugnant to liberty and human freedom and that it is the duty, the imperative duty, to protest. Congress has thus far failed to pass any amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law, removing the labor organizations from the operations of that law as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the suit of Loewe & Co. hat manufacturers of Danbury, Conn., against the United Hatters of North America, for three-fold damages claimed by Loewe—that $250,000. Though it is true that since this decision has been rendered free suits have been instituted against organized labor under the provisions of the new interpretation placed upon the law, yet it is also true that every labor organization and every individual member of the organization are menaced by the present statutes.

Take away the right and opportunity of the workers, the masses of the people, to associate themselves for their common protection against oppression whether by king or industrial potentate, curb the power of the workers, the people, for effective protest and a new era of blighted light will have been inaugurated. Against the possibility of such a condition of affairs America's workers must not only protest but they must make that protest effective and complete.

We have always held, and we still hold, that the workers or any people have to hold the right to withhold or bestow their patronage on whom they choose, that they have the right to pay the standard rate of wage and agree to other equitable conditions which the workers secure through their organizations and hence the withdrawal of patronage. The boycott declared by other citizens have sometimes been placed for other reasons and they can safely be left to a defence of our own actions. The right to withhold or bestow patronage is one of those things but can neither be enjoined, forbidden or punished.

Secretary's Report.

The report of Secretary Morrison showed that the receipts of the organization for the year ending September 30th, were $22,376.44, and the expenditures $20,702.00. Excess added to the cash on hand made a balance of $1,674.44. Voting strength of the federation in 1909 was 15,864 against 16,832 in 1908.

The report also shows that of the fund of $44,297 raised to defend Gompers, Morrison and Mitchell $38,024 remains.

THE TAX PROBLEM!

Does a Low Tax Rate Always Mean Low Taxes?

Not on your platinotype! Not, at any rate, when you're buying town lots. Streets have to be graded, mains laid, and boulevards constructed. The property benefitted by these improvements will have to bear at least two-thirds of the cost. If the property is uneven, or rocky, or heavily treed, the cost of local improvements will be correspondingly heavy. The FORTY-EIGHT BIG LOTS I placed on sale this morning have no such disadvantage. They are level, free from rock, and have been under cultivation.

MR. CARNEGIE ON THRIFT.

LONDON.

The jubilee of the Chambers Institution, Peebles, founded by Dr. William Chambers, the famous publisher, was celebrated recently when Mr. Carnegie, who received the freedom of the burgh, delivered an address on thrift and the formation of character.

In the course of the address, Mr. Carnegie said it was not wealth, but the use they made of it that was vital. It was a serious question whether wealth in youth was more desirable than poverty, whether it was better that men should begin the life of a Chambers, or that of a millionaire's child.

He could not but believe that it was best for the nation as a whole that wealth should be allowed to pass freely from the rich to the poor unimpeded by legislation, and left to the free play of natural forces—the spendthrift getting rid of the burden he could not use well, the poor man acquiring it by strenuous exertion, and self-denial, and fruitful service, after the fashion of the Chambers Brothers.

CHRISTIAN UNITY.

LONDON.

The sixty-second annual conference of the Evangelical Alliance held a series of preliminary meetings at Caxton hall. Lord Kinnaird received a number of guests at a conversation in the council chamber.

A public demonstration was held subsequently, when the hall was filled by an enthusiastic audience. Lord Kinnaird, who presided, said that union among all Christians was coming in a way that they did not anticipate a few years ago. In all parts of the world there was a movement, among the churches which betokened a great drawing together of all who believed in one faith: one Lord, one baptism.

The bishops of Durham and Newcastle, Archbishop Sinclair, Rev. Dingelde Young, and the president of the National Free Church council wrote expressing their regret at not being able to be present.

Dr. Christie, of Tarsus, Asia Minor, who has come over to England to plead the cause of the Christians of Armenia, said the bearing of witness to Christ in Armenia had cost during the last few years the lives of over one hundred thousand men and women. Out of his own college in Tarsus 50 young men students had been slain. Their lives would have been saved had they apostatised. But truth was stronger than fear, and they died nobly. Yet not for a moment was there any faltering. No sooner was the massacre over than those who were left began to rebuild their ruined colleges and other buildings. The massacre had not crushed them. They were resolved not to lower the standard of the Cross in Cilicia and Antioch.

Adam Peden, a Russian, who has spent the last fourteen years in work among the prisoners and outcasts of the Russian cities, brought a message of goodwill from the Christians of St. Petersburg, who were working for a union of all churches of the Evangelical faith in Russia.

Dr. Bartoli, of Rome, who was for 27 years a Jesuit priest in Italy, and who left the Roman church eighteen months ago because of the policy of Pius X., said many highly-educated Italians thoroughly believed in the principles of the Evangelical Alliance. They believed that the unity of the church of Christ was a deeper thing than a common belief in creeds and dogmas that had outgrown their original setting. They could not arrive at unity through the impositions of sacerdotalism. The unity of sacerdotism was a union of the lion and the lamb, and it went hard with the lamb. It was a unity of death.

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENTS.

LONDON.

Writing to the meeting in connection with the Boy Scout movement, held at the Mansion House, the Lord Mayor presiding, Sir R. S. S. Baden-Powell said it had been declared that the scheme of scouting ought to be made a compulsory part of every boy's education. That might not be possible as a whole, but it might be made nearly so if employers would give preference when engaging boys to those who had been trained as scouts. Again, if employers would select their clerks from among the scoutmasters, they would tap a field of intelligent young fellows with a strongly developed sense of duty who would give them the best returns for their pay.

Sir Francis Vane, commissioner of the London Boy Scouts, said that the Boy Scout was taught to improve himself, not for the mere advantage accruing himself, but rather for the purpose of scouting the better, and, consequently, being better prepared to do public service. Hardly a day passed without evidence that in one way or another good work was being done by scout comrades. Among the young there was clearly growing up a great and novel spirit of responsibility, which was incited by the words of the chief scout, and which must prove of incalculable value to the next generation.

The nucleus of a labor bureau was being formed by the help of Sir John Lushcombe and Capt. Infield, of Lloyd's, whereby trained and disciplined scouts could be handed over to them to fill vacancies in the ranks of their employees. This should prove of mutual benefit, for good places would be found for the scouts, and the employers would secure youths trained in discipline, observant, handy, and more than usually alert. Those responsible for the control of the movement wished to do the same by the scoutmasters, from whose ranks they could provide some

LAND TAX PROPOSALS.

MELBOURNE.

Owing to the insistence of the treasurer (the Hon. W. A. Watt) on the land tax proposals of the government, the country party in the legislative assembly is becoming restive. It is reported in ministerial circles that the schedule of taxes will in all probability be modified.

Under this measure a graduated tax is imposed on unimproved values, starting at 1/2d. in the £ on estates valued at £500, and increasing so that those worth over £80,000 pay 3d. Absentee landlords would pay 50 per cent. above the ordinary impost.

Railway Profits.

Statistics concerning the annual cost of working and the revenue of the railways of Australia show that they are more than paying their way. The annual profit is placed at £6,031,328, while the year's interest on the capital outlay amounted to £5,047,363. This leaves a net profit of nearly a million sterling. Hon. A. Deakin, Federal Premier, welcomed a party of Dutch immigrants who had come out with the intention of settling in Queensland.

Prohibition of Boxing Displays. A bill has been introduced with the object of giving municipalities power to prohibit boxing contests being held within their area of jurisdiction.

Cricketer Returns.

Victor Trumper, the famous New South Wales batsman, has arrived here on his return from England, where he was a member of the Australian Eleven. He speaks in superlative terms of the merits of A. C. MacLaren as captain of the home side.

COMPULSORY SERVICE.

MELBOURNE.

The outstanding feature of the debate in the House of Representatives on the government's defence bill is the remarkable unanimity among members of all parties in favor of the principle of compulsory service. This fact has been made perfectly clear by the speeches of the members, and it was again demonstrated by the rejection of an amendment to retain the volunteers in the defence system. The bill has passed its second reading.

There is little doubt that the defenceless state of the Northern Territory, and, indeed, of the whole of the northern coasts of the Commonwealth, has had a great deal to do with bringing home to our politicians the urgent need for a proper organization for defence. Mr. Deakin emphasised this fact in the course of his second-reading speech on the northern territory bill, which lays down the terms under which the Commonwealth is to take over this section of South Australia. The garrison of watch-dogs in the territory, he said, must consist of settlers with their all in the land.

Magnificent Speculation.

The premier characterized as a magnificent speculation the effort to develop the Northern Territory, and warned the house that the White Australia policy must become a byword if the people sat down and admitted that they could not make use of quite half their noble heritage. With such a confession of unfitness they could not deny to other nations the right to come in and develop the territory for them.

The house gave the bill a second reading, and went into committee. Before finally passing the measure, however, it has been arranged to give honorable members an opportunity to see for themselves the characteristics of what will be the first "Federal state." A party of Federal legislators are now visiting Oodnadatta, the most northern point on the railway line in South Australia which is near the southern border of the Northern Territory.

Both the representatives and the Senate have assented to the High Commissioner Bill. Speculation is rife as to who will be the first occupant of the position.

To Advertise Australia.

Now that the relations between the Commonwealth and the states are so cordial, there seems to be every prospect that the long delayed scheme for advertising Australia in the Mother Country, and co-ordinating immigration effort, will soon be put into action. Mr. Deakin intimated in an interview that the Commonwealth would gradually take over the work of advertising for all the states. The agents-general in London would continue, as at present, to supply what particulars they desired concerning the attractions of their individual states.

INDIA.

Of the most efficient clerks and managers of the most efficient clerks and managers (Mr. W. Scarborough) predicted that the Boy Scout of to-day was going to be the Territorial of to-morrow. He moved that an association be formed for the city of London.

Alderman Sir Henry Knight seconded and, after the resolution had been passed, a finance committee was appointed. It was also agreed to form a labor bureau to assist Boy Scouts and scoutmasters to obtain appropriate work.

A saving of £35,000 a year has been made by the Select committee of the House of Commons which was appointed to examine all parliamentary papers and to call attention to any unnecessary expense which has been incurred.

This statement is made in a Blue Book issued on the authority of Mr. Rowland Bailey, the controller of the Stationery office.

"The direct effect of the committee's recommendations," he declared, "has been a saving in the printing of parliamentary papers of £10,000 a year. Besides this saving it has been possible

ACRES OF ANTHRACITE.

ST. JOHN'S.

The coal which has been discovered inland of Forteau Bay, Straits of Belle Isle, turns out to be anthracite, of superb quality, and the report of the surveyor indicates that it extends over an area of upwards of a hundred acres. The grade appears to be equal to that of the finest anthracite in the world, and the field offers exceptional facilities for easy working.

The weather continues exceptionally fine, and the country is prospering, all industries participating in the general improvement.

The whaler Hump has had a very profitable season, killing no fewer than 100 whales, all of good size.

Commercial Developments.

Things are going on very prosperously in this ancient colony. There is quite a boom in our mineral development and pulp enterprises.

Sir James Winter has just returned from England, where he was engaged as Newfoundland counsel for our case before The Hague Tribunal. It is now finished, and looks well for our side. He reports that a wealthy London syndicate has taken hold of the oil wells at Parson's Pond, and mean to operate them on a large scale, and the same people have taken over the Hawkes Bay pulp area. These are of great value and extent, with fine water power and a good shipping harbor, etc., and work will be carried out on a large scale.

There are numerous other projects of pulp and mineral development. They are still, however, in the embryo stage, and Sir James Winter would not give any special information about them.

COMING INSPECTION.

CALCUTTA.

It is understood that the Commander-in-Chief in India, General Sir O'Moore Creagh, V.C., intends to spend a considerable time on inspection work during the first year of his command. A visit to the whole of the Northwest Frontier will probably be undertaken at an early date, in order that the new Commander-in-Chief may take close personal account of the situation at these outposts of the Empire. Tribal and Afghan unrest is a troublesome factor at the present time, and the Indian government will leave nothing undone to restore order on the Indian frontier.

General Sir O'Moore Creagh is very well known on the northwest border, and, moreover, he is personally much liked and respected by the tribes. His projected visit will, therefore, be productive of good.

The changes on the headquarters staff have now been effected, the new officers being at work as follows:—

Commander-in-Chief, General Sir O'Moore Creagh.
Military Secretary, Major M. Wilson.
Aides de Camp, Captain A. Lindsay and Captain Becher.
Chief of the Staff, Major-General Sir D. Haig.

CYCLONE IN BENGAL.

CALCUTTA.

A cyclone wrecked Goalando and other Eastern Bengal stations. Many river steamers and an enormous number of native craft were sunk. It is feared that a number of Europeans have lost their lives. It is impossible to give details as all telegraphic communication is destroyed. On the Calcutta side only the edge of the cyclone was experienced, but its fury may be judged by the fact that it derailed two heavy goods trains, a guard named Kitchen being killed.

The following vessels of the River Steam Navigation Company are reported sunk:— Ardock (stern-wheeler), Ganges (despatch); Miri (mail steamer), Spray (steam launch), Buchand (receiving flat), Barge 33, Wales (flat) (receiving flat), Tyron (workshop), Mary Stuart (workshop). The following vessels of the same line are reported damaged:—Beluchi (mail steamer), Ardarnock (stern-wheeler), Armori (flat).

The following vessels of the India General Steam Navigation Company are also reported sunk:—Diana and Rohini (stern-wheeler), Raven (launch), Cyclops (stores boat), Chumbal (receiving flat). The Mirzapore (flat), of the same line, is reported damaged.

Goalando, where the full force of the cyclone has been felt, is an important trade centre at the confluence of the Ganges and Brahmaputra rivers. The steamers of the India General Navigation and the River Steam Navigation companies, large concerns under English management, touch here; and river traffic is carried on with Assam and Bengal, both by steamers and native sailing craft. The catastrophe, it is feared, will seriously affect the trade; but as information has been received that Narayanganj, the centre of the jute district, has escaped, the damage done may prove to be confined to a limited area. As the jute crop this year has been abundant, and prices are favorable to the exporter, an interruption of the traffic or a heavy loss on cargoes would be a severe blow to an important industry. Goalando is always liable to inundation in the rainy season.

In 1875 the river swept away a protective work of solid masonry, and demolished the railway station and government offices.

to reduce the cost of printing for public departments generally by another £25,000 a year."

BRITISH SCIENTISTS IMMIGRATION AGENTS

Return to Tell of Wonderful Opportunities in Canadian West.

Canada as a whole, and the west in particular, are destined to reap greater advantages and greater benefits from the visit of the British Association last summer than could at first have been estimated. Every delegate to that meeting was a man of high standing in the public esteem and any expression of opinion must carry great weight with the people. Fortunately for Western Canada they were also men of ripe judgment and careful observers of economic conditions and of opportunities for commercial and industrial occupations. Everyone of them also was delighted with what he saw and heard and has gone back to become the best immigration agent and the best financial adviser that could be desired for Canada. Many of the leading members have been giving expression to their impressions of Canada to the English press and these are decidedly interesting to people here. Some are reproduced hereunder:

Sir Joseph Thomson, the president of the British Association, on his return to England, made the following statements to the Standard of Empire: "The thing that impressed me most is the tremendous hopefulness and optimism I have come across. I have never met anyone who was at all disappointed from beginning to end. I have enjoyed every minute. I never realized so beautiful a country until I saw them. The sunrises and sunsets have fascinated me more than anything else. One could live with them for a lifetime and never tire of them. I had an idea that 20 bushels an acre was a kind of average crop, but I find that 30 bushels an acre is quite common. I do not know that one would find so much enthusiasm for the British year in the agricultural districts of Great Britain as I have noticed in Western Canada. From what I have seen of Canadians they would not be far from fighting wherever the British fleet might be. The critical period for the Empire will be the next ten or fifteen years. At the end of that period I think the Empire will be too strong to be attacked. We have just got to get through the next ten or fifteen years."

Sir William White, president of the engineering section, said to the Standard: "We are acquainted with poverty in Britain for we see it on every side. I cannot but feel that here in Canada is the solution of the British difficulty. My idea would be that the government should take in hand the training of the younger generation in order to equip them mentally to take a place in the development of this country and of the other colonies of the Empire. I would not suggest that they send their poor here, and their wasters, but that the younger generation be taken in hand and taught something of the work which they should have to do in Canada."

Speaking further, he said: "This country needs capital and men, and men with capital would probably be most successful, while experience would be of equal benefit. There is a tremendous field here for investment and work. There is a deal of idle money in Great Britain looking for suitable investments, and Canada offers a tremendous field."

WONDERFUL EXPLOSIVE.

The Touch of a Fly's Foot Would be Enough to Set it Off.

"What would be the consequences of firing a barrelful of nitrogen iodide it would be impossible to say," declares a writer in the Strand, "simply because the stuff is too awful to be made in such quantities."

"It may sound like a joke, but it is nevertheless the truth that the tread of a house fly is sufficient to explode this dangerous material. It is not necessary that a fly should walk over the compound, it has only to let one foot come into contact with the explosive, when the jolt causes it to explode and to blow the insect into the air."

"Another manner in which the peculiar property of this explosive can be demonstrated is by scattering a small quantity of dry powder over a sheet of clean paper. It then resembles pepper, and only needs a few sharp breaths of the manipulator—just sufficient to make them roll—to cause each speck to ignite and explode, meantime giving off a long, thin column of dense purple smoke. If a barrelful of nitrogen iodide could be made it would have to be kept moist to prevent danger. By comparison gunpowder is a mild, innocent, inoffensive material."

In calculating the average distance covered by a fly in a minute, a French statistician declares that it would take the ordinary house-fly exactly thirty-two minutes to perform the Channel flight.

JUDGMENT SET ASIDE AND RENDERED AGAIN

Unusual Legal Procedure Follows Hearing of Local Case.

It is an unusual thing for a judgment to be set aside and re-rendered inside a few minutes, as happened in Chambers before Mr. Justice Irving this morning.

The suit of Vipond vs. the Ocean Accident & Guarantee Corporation, Ltd., arose out of another suit heard some time ago. Vipond had a logging camp up the island and an engineer named Woodruffe, who got injured while operating a donkey engine, secured a verdict against him for damages. Vipond was insured in the Ocean Corporation against such eventualities, but in settling up they could not agree as to the amount of costs to be recouped to Vipond, and he took action. After several delays the date set for trial came round a short time ago before Mr. Justice Martin, and in view of the many delays there had been he proceeded to hear it and dispose of it in the absence of any legal representative of the defendant company, giving judgment for Vipond.

This morning Charles E. Wilson, of Peters & Wilson, moved to set the judgment aside on the ground that the defendant company had no opportunity to present any legal argument. The motion was granted and argument was then heard on the merits, with the result that the judgment was rendered over again for $2,383.33.

TRAVELLER CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Employee of Wilson Brothers
Said to Be Short in His Accounts.

Charged with the embezzlement of $22, the monies of the firm of Wilson Brothers, wholesale grocers, for whom he has been employed as traveller for about two years, Charles Richards appeared this morning in the police court, having been brought down from Nanaimo by the provincial police, where he was arrested on Saturday.

The charge sets out that the offence occurred on or about the 26th of October last, and it is claimed that the shortages in the accounts of the accused are considerably larger than the sum mentioned in the warrant. The total amount mentioned this morning is said to be in the neighborhood of $6,000.

C. Wilson appeared for the prosecution and opposed any application for bail. P. Higgins, appearing for the defence, did not apply for bail, but Mr. Wilson said on the question being asked by the magistrate that he would oppose it, as large sums of money were involved in the prosecution and other charges might be laid against accused later.

On the application of the defence the accused was remanded until Monday morning next, the prosecution offering no objection.

Accused has been in the employ of the firm for about two years, and has been travelling on the E. & N. and Cumberland route for most of that time.

Wong Yue was fined $5 on a charge of assault. He pleaded guilty.

NEARING THE LIMIT!

In every city there is available for any purpose only so much land—and no more. Residential property of the highest class, for instance, is always strictly limited. As it becomes scarce, its value increases and continues to increase.

That is just what has happened, is happening, and will continue to happen, with Burleigh. It is residential property of the highest class obtainable in Victoria. Its merits rest, not on improvements promised, but on improvements already completed. It has sewers and water, convenient car service, and the inimitable advantage of a situation on Victoria Arm.

In block three, Burleigh Park, we offer to-day four lots. Number 13 is entirely clear. Number 8, facing on Arm road, has a building 50 feet long that cost originally $500. These

Number 3 has a garden and fruit trees. Lots adjoining it were sold for $700, and they are no better than Number 3. It is therefore a splendid buy, as also is lot Number 2, at

WIRELESS ON TEES.

Apparatus Will Be Found Great Convenience to All Who Travel.

Steamer Tees, when she leaves for the West Coast to-night, will be equipped with wireless apparatus, so that she will be able to keep in touch with this port all the time. There have been times in the past when much anxiety has been felt when the steamer has been delayed by fogs or gales. All this will in future be avoided. This is the long trip of the steamer to Quatsino.

Bracelets have been worn by almost every nation, savage or civilized.

THE BEST POLICY

For a young man is a 30-year endowment—at age 25. Should you pay 5 premiums and be unable to continue, THE CANADA LIFE will carry you free for 15 years longer and then pay you $17,000 in cash on each $1,000, making the actual cost of the protection for 20 years $6.66 per annum. ## MOTORMAN OF STREET CAR EXONERATED Verdict of Jury Which Investigated Fatal Accident at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest on Arnold Dewar, who was killed on Thursday evening on Park Drive. The motorman in charge of the car was exonerated from any blame, but the jury added a strongly worded rider asking the city council to again take up the matter of placing safer fenders on the New Westminster cars, as accidents such as this might be avoided by better means provided to obviate them. The jury also drew attention to other accidents in connection with these cars which might have been avoided if better fenders had been provided.

COMOX AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Courtenay, Nov. 10.—At the annual meeting of the Comox agricultural and industrial society, the election of officers for 1910 resulted as follows: President, Mr. Shopland; Vice-President, Wesley Willard; second Vice-President, Wm. Duncan; Secretary, M. B. Hall; Treasurer, Richard Carter, Jr.

Eight directors constitute the board. The constitution of the society was radically changed, in that members' fees are now $1, and the following entry fees to be charged: Horses 50c, colts 25c, cattle 50c, calves 50c, sheep 25c, pigs 25c, field produce 10c, garden produce 10c, apples, etc., 5c.

"I did not know that Scotland Yard was a nursery of wit," Mr. Flooden remarked at the Marylebone, London, police court when he was told that a detective had described a deceitful horse as like an old man on roller skates.

ORCHESTRAL SOCIETY FORMED AT NANAIMO

Symphony Orchestra Will Include About Thirty Instruments.

Nanaimo, Nov. 6.—The latest and probably the largest musical organization that has ever been launched in Nanaimo has been organized during the past week. At a meeting held at the residence of Prof. Harvey it was decided to launch a symphony orchestra of about 30 instruments. The name of the organization is to be the Nanaimo Orchestral Society. A special junior rehearsal will be held each week, apart from the weekly practice to enable several rising instrumentalists to become acquainted with the best orchestral compositions. In the president and the vice-president, the orchestra have two very enthusiastic violinists, namely, Dr. Ingham and A. W. Owen. Prof. Harvey and Mr. Owen, who are two ex-members of the orchestra of the Royal Carl Rosa Grand Opera Company, are determined that Nanaimo shall have a symphony orchestra second to none in British Columbia.

RUSHING SUPPLIES TO RAILWAY CAMPS

G.T.P. Contractors Are Preparing for the Winter's Work.

Prince Rupert, Nov. 6.—The puffing and hustling of the fleet of river boats; the wharf packed high with freight; the business-like hustle of an army of men around Foley, Welch & Stewart's warehouse would lead the passerby to think that big operations were under way some place. It is a fight against time and a strenuous job too, to rush supplies enough up the river to keep 1500 men all winter, for such there will be above the canyon if all goes well. Contracts are let and grading is under way between Kitaleas and Hazelton, a distance of 80 miles. This work is considerably higher than that of the lower part of the river and the contracts let are consequently much larger. The Rupert City recently brought 420 tons of freight for this firm, and the Henriette brought 800 tons.

OUTPUT OF MINES.

Nelson, Nov. 6.—Following are the ore shipments and smelter receipts by districts for the past week, and the year to date.

Boundary district, 43,489 tons for week and 1,249,429 tons for year.

Rossland district, 4,589 tons for week and 139,153 tons for year.

Slocan-Kootenay, 3,481 tons for week and 161,481 tons for year. Total shipments for week, 51,489 tons; and for year to date, 1,519,073 tons.

Smelter receipts for week 48,625 tons and 1,488,536 tons for year to date.

BALL AT DUNCAN.

Duncan, Nov. 6.—The third annual ball of the Duncan Lawn Tennis Club, held at the agricultural hall on Wednesday last, proved most enjoyable. The hall was tastefully decorated.

DIAMOND DRILLING IN LE ROI MINE

Ore is Being Shipped to the Trail Smelter—News of Camp.

Rossland, Nov. 6.—The Le Roi shipped 21 carloads of ore to the smelter at Trail during the past week. The ore came principally from the 1500-foot level and the levels immediately above it. It is of a high grade and it is expected the returns will be fairly large. This is the first shipment made by the Le Roi since the middle of last March. The diamond drilling is still in progress in the Le Roi and some ore has been located by the drills. The finds, while not large are encouraging.

The Centre-Star continues to yield a good tonnage of ore. Diamond drilling continues on the Enterprise. The ore shot on the fourth level of the Idaho continues to yield a good tonnage of ore of a pay grade. On the Centre Star drifting and the sinking of a winze continues, and some ore is being extracted. The War Eagle is looking well throughout. The big stop on the fifth level continues to yield well. Drifting west on the ninth level of the War Eagle is in progress and what seems to be a big body of ore has just been broken into. The tenth level of the War Eagle is also looking very well and the downward continuation of the ledge below the tenth level is being opened up and looks promising. All of the levels on the Iron Mask are looking well.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

Chilliwack, Nov. 6.—A women's institute has been organized here. The following officers were elected at the first meeting: President, Mrs. G. W. Chadsey; Vice-President, Mrs. W. V. Davies; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. W. M. White; Directors, Mrs. J. T. Maynard, Cheam; Mrs. R. Stevenson, Sappis, and Mrs. J. T. Harrison, Chilliwack.

NEW FIRE HALLS FOR VANCOUVER

Money By-Laws Will Be Submitted at Election in January.

Vancouver, Nov. 8.—Fire Chief Carlisle will submit an estimate at the next meeting of the civic fire and police committee for two new firehalls, the intention being to submit money by-laws at the January elections for the erection of the buildings.

The new fire halls are to take the place of the Fairview headquarters at Granville street and Ninth avenue and the Mount Pleasant station on Ninth avenue near Westminster avenue. Both present buildings are inadequate for the demands of the growing neighborhoods and it is possible the new structures will be of permanent type. The question of a possible change of location of the Fairview hall was suggested on account of the value of the present site, but no action was taken. Ald. Campbell thought the city might

VANCOUVER DOCTOR DEAD.

MISSION HERE IS IMPORTANTFARMERS OF ALBERTA
INVESTIGATING TRADE

James Bower Seeking Information Regarding Inter-Provincial Conditions.

On a mission of extreme interest and importance to the people of British Columbia, James Bower, of Red Deer, Alta., president of the United Farmers of Alberta, is in the city a guest at the King Edward hotel. Mr. Bower will remain in the city for perhaps the balance of the week, and has been asked to address the Board of Trade at a meeting to be held on Thursday next.

Mr. Bower is commissioned to investigate conditions in this province with the idea of ascertaining what steps can be taken to better facilitate exchange of products with Alberta. As the situation is at present, according to Mr. Bower, who accorded an interview to a Times representative this morning, each province is debarrd from using to the extent the people would desire those products which could be advantageously exchanged, and for which there are practically inexhaustible markets.

Thus, while the people of Alberta have produce—grain, hay and stock, for which there is a market in this province, the people of British Columbia are buying the bulk of these products in the neighboring States. On the other hand, while people of British Columbia have lumber and fruit and fish to export, they find their market in Alberta narrowed beyond natural limits, owing to the fact that the excessive freight rates make conditions beyond the purchasing capacity of the people.

It is to adjust such anomalous conditions.

Luxurious Leather Furniture

The Utmost of Beauty, Comfort, and Service Embodied in These

WHEN you buy from our stock of leather upholstered furniture you get the utmost in beauty and comfort and you also provide heirlooms. For our leather furniture is a sort that increases in richness and comfort with the years. It is characterized by a sturdy dignity—an air of subdued yet luxurious elegance—and lends an atmosphere of refinement and distinction far above the commonplace.

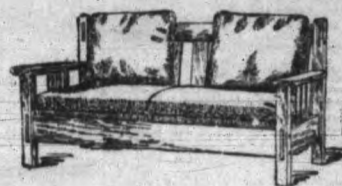

The styles are created by masters in up-to-date furniture designing. Materials used are the very finest. The workmanship is the best. There is a large variety of styles for library, living room, den or lobby. The majority of frames are in Early English finished oak—some in golden finish. Leathers come in greens, reds and olives. A magnificent showing you should inspect.

These Rich Liskurl Rugs Are Sure to Please You

Handsome in Appearance and of a Quality That Guarantees Long Service.

ALL former shipments of these handsome Liskurl Mohair Rugs sold out in a hurry and fortunate indeed were we to buy so heavily this time for the brisk buying since this shipment was opened would have thinned a stock such as previous shipments.

No wonder they sell quickly. They are the richest and most satisfactory rug at the price. Self colors in decidedly attractive shades. The weave gives a pleasing two-tone effect. Beautiful to look upon and with a beauty that isn't only temporary. Pure mohair pile—means long years of service.

Size 30 x 12 inches, each $1.25 Size 54 x 24 inches, each $4.50
 Size 36 x 18 inches, each $2.25 Size 72 x 36 inches, each $8.00

We also have table covers in this Liskurl mohair material that are striking in their beauty. We have them in reds, olives and dark greens that are charming and with a beautiful fringe. They measure two yards by two yards, and are priced at $15

Two Classes of Housekeepers

To Which Class Do You Belong? Get Right—if Not Already.

THERE are two kinds of housekeepers—one has her kitchen and bathroom floors covered with linoleum and the other has not. Attractive floors, light labor, comfort on the one side, and on the other—well, if your floors haven't a covering of linoleum you are aware of the work and labor of keeping them clean and attractive looking.

With linoleum on the floor much of this labor and worry disappears. The patterns we show are handsome, and give the room a comfortable, clean, stylish appearance. Tile, block and pretty floral patterns. Tile and block for bathrooms or kitchen and floral patterns for the dining room.

Get an inlaid linoleum—pattern running right through to back—and it will last you a lifetime, with ordinary wear. Our linoleums come from the largest British, foreign and domestic makers and we guarantee the quality of every piece. No mill's "seconds" here.
